SUSAN WEAVER
FEB.
SEPT.

Thursday Oct. 3, 1935

Mrs. Susan S. Weaver

Susan Samsel Weaver was born in Maryland, February 7, 1850 and passed from life September 26, 1935.

She was married at Dixon, Ill., October 12, 1868 to James F. Weaver, who preceded her in death, April 12, 1935. All of their married life was spent in and near Polo.

To this union were born five sons and three daughters: William, Frank and Elmer of Polo, Bert of Freeport, John of Defiance, Ohio, Mrs. Letta Haye of Oregon, Ill., Mrs. Hazel Duffey of Polo and Mrs. Minnie Coursey who passed away fourteen years ago.

Besides her seven living children she leaves four sisters and two brothers: Mrs. Augusta Ludy of Emporia, Kansas, Mrs. Emily Kincaid of Hamilton, Ill., Mrs. Phronie Rogers of Burket, Nebraska, Mrs. Cora Young of Brama, Missouri, Charles, also of Missouri and Theodore of Salt Lake City. There are fourteen grandchildren, six great-grandchildren and many friends to mourn her passing.

Funeral services were held at the home on West North street Saturday afternoon at two o'clock, in charge of Rev. Ora W. Garber. Burial was in the Old Town cemetery.

Charles W. Johnson

Charles W. Johnson, for many years a resident of Dixon, died at his home, 614 Brinton avenue, Wednesday, Sept. 25, after a lingering illness, at the age of 90 years.

Mr. Johnson was born near Harper's Ferry, in what is now West Virginia May 27, 1845. His father, Aaron H. Johnson, was a descendant of an English patriot who served in the Colonial Army during the War of the Revolution, and who received a severe wound at the battle of Monmouth. His mother, Marietta Boone, was a daughter of Daniel Boone, who was a nephew of the renowned Daniel Boone of Kentucky history.

With his father and mother, Charles W. Johnson came to Illinois by wagon when he was about one year old, coming by way of Chillicothe and Zanesville, Ohio, Terre Haute, Indiana, and Mattoon, Illinois. Crossing the upper ferry at Grand Detour, they reached Mount Morris October 16, 1846. They settled on a farm adjoining what is now "The Pines" state park, then virgin territory. Here he grew to young manhood, enlisting in Company I, 140th Illinois Volunteer Infantry during the War of the Rebellion. After his discharge from service he married Savilla Bovey, daughter of Samuel Bovey, who resided near the "Pennsylvania Corners" in Grand Detour township on December 29, 1868. He taught school and engaged in farm-

Mr. and Mrs. John Kline and baby spent Sunday with friends in Orangeville.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Garvin of South Dakota were callers in the Wm. Sheely home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mason Hopkins narrowly escaped serious injuries last Thursday evening when their car collided with a horse belonging to C. H. Stuff. The Stuff family had gone away for the evening and in some manner the horse got out of the barn and wandered into the road. The Hopkins car was damaged and the horse's jaws were broken but it is believed that it will recover.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Toms Friday, Sept. 27. The baby has been named Billy.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Wragg and Leona Jones were callers in the Ernest Wernick home Sunday afternoon.

Funeral services were held for Henry McLaughlin Monday afternoon at his home. Burial was made in Evergreen cemetery.

The Loyal Links class of the Lutheran church with their teacher, Mrs. Helen Stuff, entertained the Willing Workers class at a rodeo round-up at "The Pines" Thursday evening. Invitations were written on horses cut from brown paper. The class served a delicious supper after which cowboy games were played and group singing was enjoyed. A very pleasant evening was spent together.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hays and son were Sunday guests of Mrs. Margaret Artz in Polo.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hopkins entertained guests at a dinner Sunday in honor of the birthday anniversaries of their sons, Russell and Mason.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Wragg entertained Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sheely and son Sunday.

Mrs. Harold Hanes and children spent Tuesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Burke, near Polo.

S. L. Myers and Robert Dimmick spent Sunday in the Clayton Smith home.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Powell and family were callers in the Dale Sheely home Sunday.

Mrs. Henry Stahler and daughter and Mrs. Della Davis of Polo were callers in the Frank Davis and Wm. Sheely homes Monday afternoon.

Many farmers in this vicinity went to Oregon last Friday to receive their corn-hog checks.

Several from this community attended the funeral of Mrs. George Duffey's mother, Mrs. James Weaver, which was held in Polo Saturday. Although Mrs. Weaver had been in poor health part of the time her death was very sudden and came as a shock to her family and friends.

Miss Louisa Daehler of Chadwick spent the week-end in the Mrs. Grace Woodin home.

Ed Obendorf accompanied some cattle to Chicago Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Booth and daughter Deloris of Aurora, Mrs. Clarinda Elsey, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Duffey, Mr. and Mrs. Mason Duffey and family and Mrs. Maude Elsey were guests Sunday in the Paul Weigle home.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Obendorf and family and Esther Heckman spent Sunday in the Mrs. Anna Waterbury home.

George Duffey went to Chicago Tuesday evening when he shipped cattle and stayed in the city until Thursday night.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—
WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resent a substitute. 25c at drug stores. ©1931 C. M. Co.

In a message dated 8/6/02 6:40:48 PM Central Daylight Time, Bremmer@QNET.COM writes:

> I was out of town yesterday and this morning. What great news about Amalva's death certificate. Can't wait to see it. Any new info on it?

Dear Candy & Lucy:

There are a few "new" items to be found on her d/c:

1) her exact date of death (previously unknown)
2) a street address for her son, Russell WILSON
3) length of time she lived in K.C. (which leads, by default, to the approximate year that she & Daniel moved there from Nebraska)
4) the cemetery in which she was laid to rest

Interesting to note that Russell must not have known his grandparents SAMSEL -- hence the name "SAMUEL" given as her maiden name. He was on the right track, of course, but seems to have been guessing. Her parents names were, naturally, info I was hoping to see first-hand.

I also seriously doubt that Russell's signature is the "informant's own signature" as indicated. The handwriting looks, in fact, suspiciously like the handwriting of the funeral director . . . What do you all think?

Any idea which E.D. his address (or Amalva's) was in during the 1930 Census? I'm stumped. I was hoping to locate Russell in a Census other than 1900 (the only one for him so far). It appears, however, that he never left the K.C. area -- but I have been totally unable to locate him in 1910, 1920 or 1930.

Let me know if you receive the file okay.

Clarissa

Elizabeth Rohrer (1778 - 1828) who married Daniel Rench was a sister of my Magdalena Rohrer (1791 - ) who married Samuel Rohrer (1787 - 1862).

abeth and Magdalena were two of seven daughters (no sons) of Martin Rohrer, d. 1806, one of the early ers of Washington (then part of Frederick) County. See Scharf's "History of Western Maryland," Vol II, pages 3/1054 for an obituary of Magdalena that mentions her family's "large connection, extending among the nmonds, the Renches, and the Newcomers." In that regard, your Daniel Rench and Christian Newcomer,

Leanna
[Carolyn, my husband descends from Mahlon Rohrer, the son of John &
Susannah
Poffenberger Rohrer, apparently a double connection to your Nancy Rohrer and Jacob Poffenberger. John being the son of John & Eve Bowers Rohrer, and Susan/Susannah being the daughter of Simon & Sarah Todd Poffenberger].

Hope we can find some more descendants of John & Susan Poffenberger Rohrer so we can fill out this tree!

I've been looking at the Rohrer message board at Ancestry.com. I guess that's where everyone is posting their queries now. I like genforum better because you can search it. Maybe Ancestry will eventually get that too.
Lots of info there.

Thanks for the interest. Elizabeth Samsel is the person I am looking for. I know very little about her except she was married to Henry Shrove in PA and they had 8 sons and 1 daughter. The 1850 census indicated she could not read or write. Her age was given as 68 years 7 months 10 days (making birthdate 4-18-1814) at time of death. She is buried in Zion Cemetery, Loran Twp, Stephenson Co., IL.

Elizabeth is my husbands maternal gr gr grandmother.

Again thank you for your interest. If you have any more information, I would be most grateful for any help.

Here's the connection:

Angela Thomson Tracy (my daughter)
James Hugh Thomson II (her father)
Ruth Lavonne Geisinger (grandmother, mother of James Hugh)
Fern Leone Samsel (Ruth's mother)
Percy Leroy Samsel (Fern's father)
Theodore Carlton Samsel (Percy's father -- and son of EPHRIAM SAMSEL)

I have done a lot of research at the New England Genealogical Historical Society in Boston, and at the LDS library in Utah. I found a book on the Samsels at NEGHS. I don't have too much on the female lines beyond Fern Leone Samsel, so am working to fill those out.

Thank you again for sharing your information. Let me know if I can share anything in return.

:-) regards,
Kate

Cause of death: stroke & fractured hip. Obituary: ANNA MARY DROPPELMAN KALLMEYER Mrs. Henry Kallmeyer died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ben Tangeman, in Coldwater, on Sunday morning. The deceased was stricken with paralysis about five years ago which affected her left side, but she had recovered sufficiently to be about. some three weeks ago she accidently fell while walking in the yard and broke her hip and this was the ultimate cause of her death. Anna Mary Droppelman was born in Ankum, Germany, 85 years ago and was united in marriage to Henry Kallmeyer in 1843, when they migrated to America and first settled in Cincinnati, where they resided for ten years. In 1853 they moved to Coldwater and were among the early settlers of the county and were highly respected. Her husband preceded her in death a few years ago. She was a devout member of the Catholic church and was a faithful attendant at church when her health would permit. A dutiful wife, kind and affectionate mother and a neighbor whom it was a pleasure to know has gone to her eternal reward. She was the mother of nine children, three of whom preceded her in death. The surviving children are: Mrs. Mary Pohl, of Ft. Wayne, Ind; Mrs. Henry Hoyng, Mrs. Anna Harmen, Mrs. Ben Tangeman and Herman Kallmeyer, of Coldwater, and Mrs. C.J. Hemmert of Celina. She is also survived by one brother and two sisters-John Droppelman of Cincinnati; Mrs. Elizabeth Albers, of Coldwater, and Sister Mary Licile, of Notre Dame Convent, Washington, D.C. Funeral services were held from Holy Trinity church, Coldwater, Wednesday morning and were largely attended. Fri. July 22, 1910 Chronicle.

Dear Lucy,

I was happy to hear from you. I have not done much research into the Kallmeyer side of the family. Mom and Dad have quite a bit of data that I recently tried to organize. I think the real Kallmeyer historian is Mary Michol Kallmeyer (Bennett) Oens, at least all of our information has come from her. We also have a history of the Henry A. and Anna Pohl family by Eileen H Stelzer, dated 1978, and a history of the Andrew herman family, dated 1980.

One goal I do have with the Kallmeyer side is to gather (and Share) as many of the old photos as I can. If you are intrested I have a picture of the Herman Kallmeyer family I will Copy. I also need to go thru moms other photos to see what She has.

Mary Michol sent my mom copies of Corespondence from germany regarding the Kallmeyers. Maybe you have this information but, It seems the Kallmeyers were millers. Using wind and Water mills at the Grumfeld farm in Westerholte. The jobs were passed down, father to son. The Kallmeyer name appears in the millers union book, "Lower Saxon Mill History".

I hope to visit Mary Michol soon, and when I do, I will share what I gain. The past few years I have been working on my fathers family, and I have to do some studying on moms side yet.

I would appreciate any family group sheets you might have, and, unfortunatly I do not have an E-Mail address.

Lucy, I too was happy to hear from another Kallmeyer Descendant.

Sincerely, your Cousin,
JOEL D. ANDERSON

STATE REGISTRAR

Dear Bob:

I just heard about your loss and I know you are sad. I can't tell you how much I sympathize with you. However, you are blessed by being in the truth and knowing that Ruth will be resurrected after Armegeddon.

Ruth was a witness until she died, Bob. She will be resurrected because of her faith in Jehovah. You will see her again some day. Now you must go on and for the children's sake as well as for your own everlasting life, you must endure to the end. Be a strong witness for Jehovah and continue in the path you know is right. Then again, you will see Ruth.

The children are too small to realize their loss, and by the time they are old enough to feel the loss they will be spared the grief. Help them to learn the truth as they grow and some day they too, will take their stand and be able to tell others about the kingdom and Jehovah's blessings.

I suppose you had a witness funeral for Ruth. She would want that. I know that there are friends in Dayton who can help you in this time of sorrow much more than I can. We have been apart for so many years that you probably have little more than a memory that I am your sister - although we used to be very close. But Bob, I do love you and I wish I could do or say something to help you when you need help. But the brothers and sisters there are much closer to you than I. So, ask for their help if you need it and they will be so happy to give it to you.

Just don't let this loss hurt you and your faith in Jehovah. It is really a better thing for Ruth to go than for her to suffer so terribly. And she is blessed in the fact that she did die in the truth. She has a better chance of everlasting life than the ones' remaining. We must continue onnand remain faithful to the end - right through Armegeddon. There will be many who fall, who will not be able to hold fast to the faith. Ruth is better off than they.

Bob, I don't expect an answer from you. I realize you feel very little like writing, you don't even writeletters when you are at your best - so don't feel you have to answer. Just know that I sympathize with your loss and wish you well -

Love,

Elaine

Hello Lucy

This photo should come to you in a smaller size. If not let me know and we will figure out a way to send it smaller.

The writing on the back of the photois:

Agnes Romer Meinerding was wife of Clemens Meinerding, was a sister to Bernard (Yankee Ben) Romer, daughter of Bernard Frank and Agnes (Gravenkamp) Romer Sr., was father of H.C. (Henry) Meinerding of St. Henry, Ohio

My aunt thought some of the ROMER names from your email were Great Aunts and Uncles to her but she was not sure so she was going to try and contact her sister who might know more.

Please let me know if this resend of the photo is smaller. If not we will try and figure out how to send it so it is better to view.

Hello Lucy.

I am new to the geneology pages of the Mercer Co Historical Sociey.

I read your post about the surnames of Romer, Bany and Beckman.

My grandmdother was Matilda Romer Bernard from St. Henry, Ohio. In the information we have there is mention of Jacob Bany, and Beckman's.

If you would have any information relating to any of these families would you please email me?

thanks

Marj Bernard Braun

Dear Harold:

All the outstanding debts against the estate of M. A. Rulman, deceased have been paid with the exception of the $ 3,000 mortgage on the home. To sell the house at private sale each heir must designate the price satisfactory to him or her. If, we are unable to get the stipulated price agreed by the heirs, your consent to have the property sold at public auction is necessary. Be it understood that the selling price is subject to any expense incurred in disposing of the home. In order, to do this we must have a signed agreement from each heir so, please sign the enclosed form and return at once.

Yours very truly,

CODICIL TO LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF MINNIE A. RULMAN

I, Minnie A. Rulman, of the Village of Paulding, County of Paulding and State of Ohio, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do MAKE, PUBLISH and DECLARE this a Codicil to my Last Will and Testament, heretofore made by me, under date February 24, 1953, in words and figures, as follows:

FIRST: I hereby revoke Item SEVENTH of my Last Will and Testament dated February 24, 1953.

SECOND: I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my beloved son-in-law, Marvin Sacher, and my beloved daughter, Elizabeth A. Rulman, Executor and Executrix, respectively, of my Last Will and Testament, dated February 24, 1953, and request that no bond be required of them as such Executor and Executrix.

Lastly, I reaffirm my said Last Will and Testament, so made by me under date of February 24, 1953, save and except such item as is herein specifically revoked.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand to this a Codicil to my said Last Will and Testament, heretofore executed under date February 24, 1953, this 30th day of April, in the year or our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-six (1956).

Minnie A. Rulman

The foregoing instrument was signed by the said Minnie A. Rulman in our presence, and by her published and declared as and for a Codicil to her Last Will and Testament dated February 24, 1953, and at her request, and in her presence, and in the presence of each other, we hereunto subscribe our names as attesting witnesses at Paulding, Ohio, this 30th day of April, A. D. 1956.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF MINNIE A. RULMAN

IN THE NAME OF THE BENEVOLENT FATHER OF ALL:

I, Minnie A. Rulman, of the Village of Paulding, County of Paulding and State of Ohio, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do MAKE, PUBLISH AND DECLARE this my LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT, hereby revoking and making null and void all other last Wills and Testaments heretofore by me made.

FIRST: I direct that all my just debts, funeral expenses and testamentary expenses be paid by me executor hereinafter named, as soon after my decease as shall be found convenient.

SECOND: I give, devise and bequeath to my beloved son, Norman J. Rulman, the sum of One Dollar ($1.00).

THIRD: I give, devise and bequeath all my household goods, furniture, fixtures, bedding and other equipment to my beloved daughters, Mary C. Sacher, Elizabeth A. Rulman and Eleanor A. Richman.

FOURTH: I give, devise and bequeath to my beloved daughter, Elizabeth A. Rulman, all merchandise, equipment, accounts, motor truck, and all my interest of every kind in and to the business conducted by me upon grounds leased from the New York Central Railroad Company at Paulding, Ohio, which business is designated as Rulman Coals, she to pay the debts and accounts owing by said business.

FIFTH: I hereby direct my Executor hereinafter named to pay to the Pastor of St. Joseph's Catholic Church at Paulding, Ohio, the sum of Two Hundred Dollars to be used for the purpose of saying Masses for my soul.

SIXTH: I give, devise and bequeath all the rest, residue and remainder of my property, real, personal and mixed to my following children, to-wit: Ralph H. Rulman, Edward L. Rulman, Harold H. Rulman, Mary C. Rulman, Elizabeth A. Rulman and Eleanor A. Richman, share and share alike.

SEVENTH: I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my beloved son-in-law, Marvin Sacher, Executor of this my Last Will and Testament, and request that no bond be required of him.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand to this, my Last Will and Testament, at Paulding, Ohio, this 24th day of February, in the year of Our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty-three (1953).

Minnie A. Rulman

Lucy, in looking through old e-mails, I have one from a Father David at St. Francis (church, I am assuming) that mentions two Droppelmann women, one of whom married a "Kalmeyer." I believe this was a name you were researching.

His e-mail address (as of 7/2000) is stfranc@bright.net.

The Droppelmann list is up--in the next few days, I will send detailed e-mails to all I've come across researching this name. (Which is how I happened upon this likely match for you.)

Hi,

here is a picture for you. It has my mom & my aunt in it. Plus my grandma. My cousin sent it to me. I was so excited Dont have any from that age. You mentioned I have cousins in Dayton. Anyone who might want to get acquainted with me? If yes, send me names & address & how related. Maybe other pictures would turn up.

The weather here is finally turning cooler. I am so glad, I hate hot ~~Weath~~ weather. Bill & I have started walking every night. We try to do 2 miles a night thru Chickamauga Battlefield. There are so many trails.

Betty & the Kids are fine. The girls have been congested. Brandon found a baby squirrel on the ground so he is taking care of it. He really wants a chicken.

Bill & Betty have both had to work overtime this year. Bill's has finally slowed down. But our mystery shops have lasted all year.

Time for Bill to get home so I'll close. How is your husband? How have you been? I'm a diabetic (since April) & have lost almost 30 lbs!

love from your cousin

Lucy, I am sending this to you because of your Kallmeyer name.

Donna, I am sending this to you because of the Covington, KY connection.

Last summer I corresponded briefly with a "Father David" stfranc@bright.net (Lucy, I recently gave you this e-mail address).

In condensed form (but all pertinent info included), here's what his e-mail said:

I may be able to offer you a little bit, but will have to dig it up. I know two Droppelmann women who lived in the area. One married an Albers at Philothea, the other married a Kalmeyer and lived near Coldwater. One of these Kalmeyer daughters married a Hoyng, a cousin to my gg-grandfather. These Droppelmann ladies come from the family that lived in Covington, KY/Cincinnati, OH. I believe what I have comes from the research of Margret von der Haar.

(Okay, it's Kristine again.)

Additionally, I found a website that shows a Bertha Anne Henke marrying a Elmer Henry Albers 11/19/1936 in Florissant, MO. Bertha's g-grandmother was Gertrude Margaret Droppelmann 1825-1912. According to their info, Gertrude was born in Germany, married Hermann Henry Henke in Florissant in 1850.

I am dying to find the tie to Gertrude to my family. I believe the four brothers that came over did so after 1850, but now of course, I am not so sure.

Don't forget that we have a Droppelmann message board via Rootsweb. To subscribe, go to www.rootsweb.com, and click on MESSAGE BOARDS. In the left column, click on SURNAMES. Do a search for Droppelmann, and select it. You should be able to subscribe from there.

Keep in touch.

Subject: Re: Droppelmann/Albers

Hi Lucy! Sorry about the delay. I was out of town for a while. Also tried to do some research on this -- very confusing to me.

My grandmother was Elizabeth Obringer and she married Herman Albers January 28, 1891. Herman's parents were Bernard and Maria Blondine Elizabeth (Gerdes) Albers. I don't know when they were married, but both originated in Germany. This Bernard Albers had a brother John Friedrick Albers who married Elizabeth Droppleman on June 19, 1849 in Cincinnati. They both originated in Germany. This Bernard Albers and John Fridrick Albers parents were Arnold Heinrich and Helena Elisabeth (Suttman) Albers, born, married February 15, 1821, died, and buried in Germany.

As I stated before, my grandmother was Elizabeth Obringer. Her father was Nicholas Obringer. Nicholas' brother (I think) was Ballser (different spellings) Obringer and he had a daughter by the name of Caroline who married a Herman Kallmeyer in 1880. They are both buried in Coldwater.

Is this any help -- or are you confused also? Maybe we can find a connection.

Please let me know. I hope I can be of some help.

Hi, Dorothy, Fr. David told me you were a descendant of the Droppelmann/Albers Family. Before I ask you any questions, will tell you how I am descended:
Margaretha Maria(Anna) Droppelmann(1825-1910) mar. 1843 John Henry Kallmeyer(gt.gt. grandparents)
Their daughter Anna Maria Kallmeyer(1853-1922) mar. 1872 John Henry Herman(gt.grandparents)
Their daughter Philomena Anna(Minnie) Herman (1878-1956) mar. 1898 Anthony Herman Rulman(grandparents)
Their son Harold Henry Rulman(1905-1986) mar. 1929 Erma Arvilla Wheaton(parents)
Lucy (Rulman) Weaver-1933
In Anna Droppelmann Kallmeyer's obituary, it mentioned sisters Elizabeth Albers, Sr. M. Lucile and a brother John Droppelmann, so I am seeking information on those siblings. I have Margaretha Maria(Anna's) parents listed as John Diederich Gerd(Richard) Droppelmann and Elisabeth Droppelmann. I have no parents listed for Elisabeth Droppelmann. I have parents for John Diederich as Philip Tobias Droppelmann & Marie Aleid Schroeder I have nothing beyond Philip Tobias , but more on Maria Aleid Schroeder. So glad to have found another descendant, especially from the Mercer Co. area. My Dad Harold Rulman was born in Coldwater..later moved to Rockford and then to Paulding when Grandpa was transferred with the railroad. He loved to travel to the St. Henry, Maria Stein and Coldwater area. We have relatives in Coldwater (Stauglers). Kate Staugler was my Grandmother's younger sister. Will gladly share what I have on my branch of the family. Hope we can exchange notes. So glad you have e-mail.

I saw your post on the Mercer County List. I have information on the family of the Maria Catharina Tangemann who married Bernard Mescher. She had 7 siblings: Anna Maria Elizabeth, Anthony, Joseph, Frederick, Bernard, John Henry, and Anna Maria Catharine. Her parents were John Gerhard Heinrich Tangemann and Anna Maria Moeller. We have a couple of more generations back Does anyone have in their records an Elizabeth Droppelman born December 8, 1870 in Louisville, Jefferson Co., KY. She was married to George Esterle betwwen 1895 and 1897 and she died April 15, 1938 in Louisville and is buried at St. Michael Cemetery so she was probably Catholic. Siblings alive at the time of her death include George, Theodore, and a sister married to John Voll.

I would like to determine who Elizabeth's parents were.

I am very interested in your Andrew HERMAN who died in 1879 at St Henry OHIO.
When we visited there in 1981 we found a stone saying Herman ANDREAS which says Mar 22 1879 and age 72-3-28. The Mercer County Volume VIII of Granville and Marion Twps pub 1992 also has the Herman ANDREAS name and information.
Some of my ANDRES relatives think that Herman was related to us.
My people in Mercer County OH were Peter SCHMELZ and his wife Catharine nee ANDRES (NAME ON THE SHIP'S RECORD) or ANDARES (ON ST FRANCIS CHURCH BAPTISMAL RECORDS) or ANDREAS. I believe that Peter SCHMELZ had a sister Serena who married Adam BANY. Other relatives could have been HIERHOLZER and KNOTH------these people had families in the 1860s or so also.
You have Anna Maria HERMAN 1850-1927.....who was her husband ????? BANY?
Where did they live and die?
I know that Mercer County Catholics went to Perham Minnesota (where I was born in 1939) and some BANY people went to Oregon. However, I have not found the deaths of Adam and Serena BANY. Can you help me?
Some SCHOENEBERGERs live yet at Perham Minnesota.
Please reply and clarify my information. I did not get to see the actual St
Henry Church records. My SCHMELZ first generation were buried at Cranberry Prairie OH. I have been searching for 20 years to find the German birthplaces of my Peter SCHMELZ and his wife nee Catharine ANDRES or ????.
THANKS VERY MUCH...............Jeanette CARLSON in southern Minnesota

TEGELER about 1825. He died 1829, and Maria Elisabeth married Johann Heinrich LAMPE, etc., etc. You can read more about these people in my "Kortenkamp Family History" at my website.

Daniel Kortenkamp,

I don't have Maria Elisabeth DROPPELMANN (M.E.D.), born 1795, in my database. I SUSPECT that she might have been the sister of my great-grandmother's father, Johann Henrich DROPPELMANN (J.H.D.), who I'm guessing was born about 1800.

An Elisabeth D. is listed as baptismal godparent to the first daughter of J.H.D. born in 1830 at which time your M.E.D. would have been 35 years old (seems like this could fit?) Also see below.

Noted the name HERBOLT in your e-mail. Curiously, I have Anna Maria HERBOLT "nee DROPPELMANN" as godparent of the fourth child of J.H.D.

As further indication of the apparent closeness of the Kemper and Droppelmann families in Thiene, the following DROPPELMANNs were listed as godparents of Kemper children (born in the year noted).

Herman Gerhard Droppelmann (1816)
Johann Gerhar Droppelmann (1821)
Margaretha Maria Thieman, nee Droppelmann (1821)
Elisabeth Droppelmann (1823)
Margaretha Maria Droppelmann (1788) (Mother of your M.E.D. ??)

Unless some current Droppelmann descendant from whom we have not yet heard has more/better information re the family in Thiene, I don't think we are going to get any better answers in the absence of researching the Alfhausen church records, which is a reasonably expensive exercise.

Regards,

Paul Kemper

Thank you very much for your e-mail.
I do not have any direct connection with the Dröppelmann-Kallmeÿer family.
My great great grandfather's cousin, Herman Heinrich Hoyng married a Kallmeyer and lived near Coldwater, Ohio.

I do know a woman in St. Henry, Dorothy Bruns, who descends from the Dröppelmann who married the Albers. She might be interested in this information.

Lucy,

I received the attached email. I answered it with the information I have, but that was only the parents of Elizabeth and approximate birth and death years. If you have anything else, you could email her. There is a little more information on her email to add to our files.

Hope you and your husband are doing well. Thanks for all your past help.

Lucy -- 1870 Census lists for Butler Township Jacob BARNEY, age 21 & Anna BARNEY, age 19, no children. Should the name be spelled BANY ???

Listed also in Marion Township for 1870 is Jacob BARNEY, age 60 & his wife, Dena BARNEY, age 61, children - Mary, 19 yrs. & Sarana, age 15. Could this be the Father of the younger Jacob ??? Again, is this a BANY - BANEY _BARNEY ??

Also in Marion Township for 1870 is Adam BANY, age 50 & his wife, Jerind, age 35 with 7 children; John, 21; Dena, 19; Elizabeth, 17; Catherine 15; Mary, 13; Lewis 11; & Sebastion, 9. Is this Adam a younger brother to Jacob ?

Trying to settle the surname spelling. My grandfather's older brother married Mary Ann, & I have the spelling 3 ways on records. Wondered which is correct. Regards, Vince.

Perhaps you sent a lovely card,
Or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a funeral spray,
If so we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words,
As any friend could say;
Perhaps you were not there at all,
Just thought of us that day,
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much whatever the part.

IRISH BLESSING

May the road rise to meet you, may the wind be always at your back.
May the sun shine warm upon your face,
The rain fall soft upon your fields,
And until we meet again.
May God hold you in the hollow of his hand.

Sleep on dear Charlie, your labor's o'er
Your willing hands shall toil no more
On earth they strove, in heaven they rest
We miss you most who loved you best.

CHARLES STAUGLER

November 16, 2001
Holy Trinity Church
Coldwater, Ohio

RECEPTION OF THE BODY

We first share in the resurrection of the Lord through Baptism. Now we again bless Charles's body with holy water and place upon his coffin a white garment. Resting beneath the light of Christ, symbolized by the Easter Candle, we entrust Charles to God who is the resurrection and the life.

You are encouraged to be a part of this Funeral Liturgy by singing the songs and acclamations indicated in this worship aid as well as responding to the spoken word.

here are some pictures of my 2 granddaughters.

I got my new digital Camera last night (ins Paid me for my broken one) It is supposed to be a better one. We are still trying to set the date & time.

I quit work & am staying home. Working on the family tree. I found some info on the Beckman turtle soup factory - owned by Lee's brother. found some on ancestry, com on him & his Kids. Do you have a Dayton phone book. Am looking for my Lucas cousin in Englewood. Mary Litton - Englewood Ohio want to write her & see about tree info. Better go. love R

I'll always have a warm SPOT in my heart for a really great cousin like you!

Happy
Valentine's Day

Hope you both have a nice day.

love

Dear Lucy, !!

Received your letter on Sept. 6, and hear I am finally writing to you. It was great hearing from you. Sorry to hear about your being in the hospital - Hope this finds you feeling much better.

Lucy, it is hard to believe that summer is over and fall is starting. I love ~~this~~ time of the yr. My sinus doesn't like the change though. (Ha!).

It sounds like you're kept busy. I hope Jerry is feeling better. It is so hard to believe that Ann & Scott's sons are growing up so fast. That means were getting older. (right)?

Julie & Rick's daughter Nikki turned six on Sept. 24th and is in kindergarten. It just seems like she was born. How time flys.

Well, we became grandparents again. On Sept. 12th Jeanine gave birth to a 8 lb. 11 oz. boy. I will give you more information on another sheet. As I'm writing I'm trying to watch a foot-ball game between the Cleveland Browns and the Buffalo Bills. My team is Cleveland Browns. It is a tied game (10-10) (over please) with only 18 seconds left before the half. So if you can't read my scribbling, you know why. (Ha! Ha!). (Time out)

Jeff is still working at Coach to Coach - Jim is in Cincy and works in a book store. Don't get to see him much. Hope, Jim will get home for the "holidays".

The game just came back on. I sure hope the Browns win. Enough of this. Do you like football?

This afternoon, I went with my girl friend to Rockford, Oh. We went to Schum pharmacy. My friend wanted to look at some Precious Moments figurines. It was fun going on a Monday which I don't do very often. I had my washing done and I thought "(why not.) Ha! Tomorrow (Tues) I'll go to Bingo at Celina, Oh. I don't win very often, but I'm always ready to go and visit with my friends and have an enjoyable evening. This letter probably sounds weird. I'm not good at writing letters. My writing is terrible. I hope you can read it.

Lucy, you're in my prayers every day. Take care and tell Jerry we said "hello". Write or call me. Ph. 1-419-678-2446. Love to hear from you.

Love & prayers

-Kathleen- ☺!!

Lucy,

I didn't write on the sheet you sent me. I wasn't sure if I should.

I noticed Bernards mom's name is misspelled (asella)

Jeff is still single

Jeanine was born on June 22 (1960)

Jame (Jim) is still single

This is an update on our fam.

I believe Neal & Teresa Staugler had a girl last yr. I don't remember the date. – I'll get on this and let you know. They are expecting either before the holiday or after.
I believe Rodney Stauglers had a new baby.

Dear Mr. Rulman,
I have been doing family research on the family HERMAN.

Your Ancestor Chart on file in Ohio was sent to me with your address. Hope that we can share information any possible may be able to find some more on the line.

Information I have been able to obtain:
Grantee Index to Deeds-Miami County,Ohio ---- shows:
Samuel L Herman March 15,1832
Sarah Herman June 1,1829 - (she was wife of Larkin-my husbands great great grandmother)
Henry Herman Nov 2,1835
FranklinHerman Oct 30,1837 (brother of Larkin)
Lawson D Herman March 24,1859 (son of Larkin & Srah Herman)

Dates are show when property was purchased.

It appears that the Herman's came into Phiadephia moved down into the Carolina's then to Kentucky and up to Ohio. I have found part of the family of four brothers as follows:

Larkin Herman	born 10 March 1803	North Caolina
Franklin J Herman	born 7 June 1805	Kentucky
Nelson	born 14 July 1811
John	born 1814 in Shelby County,Ohio

These four moved to White County Indiana.Franklin moved to Indiana in 1839 , Larkin moved to Indiana in 1843 , John came in 1843.

Have traced these four Herman's in Indiana, My husband' line is down thru Larkin. Have reach a dead end however with going back before this date.
I would think this Herman family were in Ohio any time from 1806 to 1814.

Found in the 1820 Federal Census for Ohio three Herman's

Daniel Herman	page 019 (city) Lic	FA1 (twp)	~~Hockey~~ Miami
John Herman	076A	FA1	Hockey
Jacob Herman	080A	FA1	Belmont

Interested if you have followed up this information in the past of if you have gotten any farther back than the 1851 for Henry Herman as shown on your chart.

I sent for a copy of the book The Herman Family 1734-1939.
Wrote to Alla Pearl Little Hickory N.C. and letter was returned.

It is interetseing to note that the family names keep repeating them selves. In the book are a Henry,John,Franklin.. However not any I can place in my family.

My family of Herman goes:
Larkin Herman born 10 March 1803 North Carolina Married Sarah Jane born 1807 South Carolina .

William Herman born 1836 Shelby County,Ohio married Ellen E Ross born in Penn 15 May 1839

Harvey M Herman born 30 May 1867 Burnettsville,Ind. married Lillie May Brow

Hope you have gotten a few more leads on the family. It seems they had the wander lust for land. As they seem to have moved to new frontiers each time land opened a little more out west.

Enclosed is a chart on the family that I have to date.

Thank you for reply and any help you might be able to give.

Sincerely,

Kathie Amundson

Brotherly love has no place in fight for OSU quarterback

By RUSTY MILLER
AP Sports Writer

COLUMBUS — Tom Hoying has a problem that's hard to get around: his brother.

Hoying wants to be the starting quarterback at Ohio State. But to do that, something bad would have to happen to his big brother Bob.

Heading into Saturday's annual spring intrasquad game, the Hoyings are 1-2 on the quarterback depth chart. Maybe more than a hyphen separates them, however, because Bob, a redshirt sophomore who started every game last season, is clearly No.1.

"I don't think he'll see the day," Bob said, only half joking, when asked if his brother could beat him out.

But this spring Tom, a redshirt freshman two years younger, has come on strong to move into the backup spot.

"Bobby has played here for two years and has a better grasp of the offense and who to get the ball to," Ohio State coach John Cooper said. "But Tommy has improved as much this spring as anybody."

So after several years of quarterback controversies in the spring, there is now a sibling rivalry at the position.

"I'm just trying to do my best and help the team. If that's being backup, then I'll be the backup and I'll be ready if Bobby were to go down," Tom said. "If that's playing so well I beat Bobby out, I'm not going to look back.

"He says it's not going to happen. But you never know."

It's hard to tell the two apart on the field, aside from the 14 on Bob's uniform and the 10 on Tom's back. Bob, who led Ohio State to a 10-1-1 record last year and a piece of the Big Ten title as a redshirt sophomore, shows more authority and confidence when he's in the pocket. Tom is still learning about technique, release points and timing.

Off the field, there are few differences as well. Both stand 6-foot-4, although Tom weighs 210 to Bob's 223. Both have blond hair, are good students and were idolized in their hometown of St. Henry, hard by the Indiana-Ohio border.

When Tom was being recruited 18 months ago, he was standing with his family outside the locker room door when a fan asked for an autograph. Mistaken for Bob, he almost signed his brother's name.

"The situation is that blood's thicker than water," OSU quarterbacks coach Ron Hudson said. "That family is so close.

"Next year Tom's grades are so good he'll probably move off campus. When he does, he and Bob will room together. Now that's tight. Bob even picks Tom up every day on his way to practice. It's a unique situation."

Tom has had an illustrious football career but has always been eclipsed by his big brother. He led St. Henry to the Division V state championship and a 14-0 record and was first-team All-Ohio. Bob did the same things two years earlier and was the state's Mr. Football.

Tom followed Bob to Ohio State because he had little choice — four uncles and an aunt are OSU grads — and because he already had a good friend on campus.

"I love Ohio State. I love the atmosphere; I've made a lot of friends here and on the team, through Bobby," he said.

The two broke their share of lamps and windows playing ball back home. They measured

Kalida, Edgerton cop C-N Awards

Kortokrax, Verhoff named the top boys coach, player

By BRUCE HEFFLINGER
C-N Ass't Sports Editor

A big year for the Kalida Wildcats basketballers has been capped off with the honoring of Head Coach Dick Kortokrax and star center Joe Verhoff with The Crescent News Coach and Player of the Year awards.

Both were narrow winners in the voting by area coaches. Kortokrax received six votes to nip Pettisville's Charles Nafziger who had five votes while Verhoff was mentioned on 12 ballots and Fayette's Darrell Heximer on nine. Others receiving votes for the coaches award were Napoleon's Walt Behrman (4), Continental's Don Huber (4), Ottoville's Steve Penhorwood (3), Stryker's Dave Krauss (2), Defiance's Steve Grant (2), Fayette's Bob Oberle (1) and Paulding's Al Souder (1). A quintet of players garnered one vote for the players award, Stryker's Ben Ruffer, Kalida's Randy Kortokrax, Napoleon's Bill Dunbar, Ottoville's Tim Turnwald and Defiance's Karl Schrag.

BOTH WERE surprised upon receiving their awards on Tuesday.

"It's a great honor and a great priviledge and I'd like to thank The Crescent," commented the likeable Verhoff upon getting his award. "I don't know yet where I'm going," Verhoff noted about his future basketball plans. "Nothing's conclusive. I'll just have to wait and see. I'd like to play Division I ball. I think I can make the adjustment out to wing but we'll have to wait and see."

If Verhoff's play in college is anything approaching this season, he will have a very bright future. The 6-4 center, who is built like a tight end in football, averaged 23 points a contest while connecting on 60 percent of his shots from the field this year. He was named first team all-northwest Ohio, first team District 8 and most valuable player in the Putnam County League after helping the Wildcats to an outright league crown and 20-3 mark for the season. He will also probably add a first team all-state honor to the list of accomplishments.

HE SCORED HIS 1,000th career

Herman, Flecker capture girls' basketball honors

By RENISA YOUNG
C-N Sports Writer

The Edgerton girls basketball team dominated the area in basketball this year and now reeps in many top awards including Laura Herman as The Crescent-News Player-of-the-Year and Ric Flecker, Coach-of-the-Year.

Herman, a senior, copped nine votes while Swanton's LaRae Pettit and Fayette's Pam Borton each had four votes with Continental's junior Char Smith received one tally. Flecker received six votes edging out Swanton's Betteye Jo Hansbarger, who had five and Liberty Center's Larry Vogtsberger, who had four. Also receiving one vote each were Patrick Henry's Jim Creager, Kalida's Vicki Mauk, Bryan's Nancy Moser and Paulding's Gary McClure.

HERMAN WAS HAPPY with the honor because of the stiff competition in the area. Herman is an all-around athlete and feels basketball is her best sport, but in the fall to her surprise she was awarded the Player-of-the-Year for volleyball also.

"It was nice to receive both awards from the coaches. It shows they have a lot of respect for me," commented Herman. "I think I have been fortunate to play with high caliber players. All these awards that I'm receiving now are because the team itself did so well. If we had been 0-something it wouldn't have happened. Because of that it made it that more neat." In regards to furthering her education, Herman is leaning toward Cleveland State on a scholarship and majoring in Education with emphasis on Learning Disabilities. A key reason for her major is because it gives her a chance to be a coach, which only seems appropriate.

COACH FLECKER COMMENTED about his star player, "I only need about three or four players to come on to replace Laura. This award is more prestigious than others because it's regardless of school size, not just Class A. It indicates the amount of respect the area coaches have for her. I have a lot of personal respect for LaRae Pettit (Swanton) so it makes me even more proud."

Herman ended her high school basketball career as a winner with exceptional talent who plays with a great deal of heart. Under her leadership, the Bulldogs had an undefeated 20-0 season which is not an

Alcoholism on rise among Hispanics

According to the Journal of Hispanic Issues by the National Council of La Raza, May/June 1979, alcoholism among the Spanish-speaking population is a fast-growing problem in the United States.

Reports by professionals n the field of alcoholism ndicate that alcoholism and alcohol abuse among Hispanics is matching the Hispanic population growth. A large portion of America's increasing population of 11 million alcoholics is Hispanic.

However, among Spanish-speaking people alcoholism has not yet been accepted as a disease. Seldom does the Hispanic view an individual as suffering from the disease of alcoholism or the victim of the disease as an alcoholic in need of human compassion, understanding and proper treatment. Also, Hispanic familes must learn that alcoholism is a family disease.

If drinking continues to disrupt an individual's life, and even knowing this, the person continues drinking, then this person is an alcoholic. Unfortunately, too many Hispanics still think alcoholism remains an embarrassment that affects "the other guy."

Although more and more professionals dealing with alcoholism are becoming sensitive to the unique problems of Hispanic alcoholics, there are not enough of these professionals and the urgency of the matter requires more Hispanic involvement.

Most alcoholism awareness and education efforts through the media are in English and either do not reach or do not appeal to the Spanish-speaking population. Difficulty in obtaining needed assistance and services is also seen as a major factor in the slow development of alcoholism treatment programs specifically for Hispanics.

Another problem is the lack of bilingual, bi-cultural prevention programs.

The role of the general Hispanic population in this broad education and prevention campaign is not easy. It will require of the entire Hispanic population much understanding, support and cooperation.

It is hard to admit that a member of one's family has a drinking problem in a culture where family unity is highly prized and where drinking is embedded into the culture, is accepted, promoted and tolerated to great lengths. The consequences of continued apathy could result in the disappearance of the Spanish-speaking races.

For more information on alcoholism and alcohol abuse, visit Five County Alcoholism Program, 418 Auglaize St., Defiance, or call 782-9920. In addition to a large amount of reading and viewing English materials, the office has an equal amount of Spanish literature, pamphlets, films and bilingual personnel.

Non-farm workers down in Midwest

CHICAGO — Non-farm employment in the heavily industrialized North Central Administrative Region fell 3.8 percent in 1982, the U.S. Department of Labor's Bureau of Labor Statistics announced.

Within the region, employment losses ranged from 4.4 percent in Illinois and Indiana to 2.9 percent in Ohio. Nationally, employment fell 2.3 percent in the 12 months ended December 1982.

William E. Rice, regional commissioner for the Bureau in Chicago, said non-farm employment in the six-state region fell o 17.66 million in December 1982, a loss of 685,000 from December 1981. This follows declines of 529,000 in 1980 and 406,000 in 1981.

Rice noted that although the region contains about one-fifth of the jobs held nationally, it accounted for one-third of the 2.17 million jobs lost last year.

The employment cuts in 1982 were widespread, affecting all major industry sectors except services. Hardest hit were manufacturing industries where employment fell 509,000 or 10.8 percent, accounting for three out of every four jobs lost in the region last year.

The largest custs occurred in five basic heavy industries: Machinery except electrical (-183,000 or 22 percent), primary metal (-72,000 or 18.9 percent), (-51,000 or 8.5 percent) and electrical and electronic equipment (-45,000 or 10 percent).

Employment in these five industries has fallen by over 1 million, or 31 percent since reaching pre-recession peaks in 1979.

Service industry employment grew in 1982 but at a somewhat slower rate than in recent years. Employment rose 1.5 percent or 55,000 positions from December 1981 to December 1982.

Employment in health services rose 1.6 percent over the year. This was also less than the 3-5 percent annual growth recorded over the past few years.

Employment in government declined by 23,000 or eight-tenths of a percent. A gain of 4,000 positions in state government was offset by employment cuts of 25,000 in local government and 2,000 in federal government.

Retail trade employment fell by 60,000 over the year, a 1.9 percent setback. Almost one-third of the losses were in general merchandise stores. Another 10,000 jobs were cut in both apparel and accessory stores and in auto dealers and service stations. Employment in wholesale trade was down 2.6 percent, representing a loss of 27,000 jobs.

Employment in transportation and public utilities was off 47,000 positions or 5 percent. Railway employment fell 16.7 percent

Monday,

Dear Mrs Weaver

Thought I'd drop you a line and let you know I too am doing genalogy on the Dryppleman family. Do you know of any connection to the St. Clare group here in Lewis - Doddridge Co. They were all Catholics. From Germany - Hanover and places I never knew My husband's grandmother was Elizabeth Dryppleman (W.Va) who married Ike Boyle. Would appreciate hearing from you about this.

I belong to the Hackers Creek group now. I don't know if I'll find out anything on either side but I'll try. The meeting Sat. was all day and a good training session. I've been at it a long time on my own.

I will share with you what I have

Thanks so much for any news you have.

Edgerton St. Mary parishioner Cecil Herman with pictures of her three daughters who are in Religious life: Tiffin Franciscan Sr. Marie, Tiffin Franciscan Sr. Marcella, and Sr. Carol of the Franciscan Sisters of the Sacred Heart. Their mother said that all three entered the convent after grade school. She said Carol hadn't yet started grade school when Marie entered, but Carol already had made up her mind: "If Marie likes it, I'm going to go, too." Sr. Carol was the last Religious vocation from Edgerton St. Mary before the parish marked its 100th anniversary, in 1965. There have been none since. The Sisters' father, Leonard Herman, is deceased. His father had a sister in Religious life and was a cousin of St. Mary parishioner Charles Herman, who had three sons become priests: Vincent, Maurice, and Cletus. Other priest-sons of Edgerton St. Mary were Fr. A.G. Hermann, Msgr. Rupert Goebel, and Fr. Harold Chilcote.

Rulman named JP Days parade grand marshal

By NANCY WHITAKER
Staff Writer

Norman C. "Norm" Rulman has been named this year's grand marshal of the John Paulding Day Parade.

Norm, a lifetime Paulding resident, long-time firefighter, postal employee, and the author of "Norms News" will represent the firefighters of all times, including those from the 9-11 tragedy.

The theme for this year's grand parade is "Celebrate America."

Rhonda Stabler, Chamber president, said, "Norm was a very good choice for Grand marshal, because of his service and dedication to the fire department for many years."

Mike Farmer, chamber executive director added, "Norm Rulman was chosen to be grand marshal because of his involvement in the community and his community service."

Rulman was a volunteer fireman for 46 years; 12 of those years he was assistant fire chief, and 13 years as fire chief. Norm says, "Fire fighting gets in your blood." He says he always loved to put out fires, and loved the challenge of fire prevention.

At age 90, Norm Rulman is not a coach potato. He remains active in the St. Joseph Catholic Church, Paulding County Senior Center, Kiwanis, and the Public Retired Employees Inc.

For Norm's love of the Paulding community, his involvement, love of life, and caring, the Paulding community will salute him for his dedicated service.

John Paulding Days is scheduled for June 13-15, with the grand parade being held at 7 p.m. Thursday, June 13.

Mercer author tackles county's barn history

By JULIE ZASADNY
Staff Writer

CELINA — Joyce Alig probably knows more about Mercer County's barns than anyone else in the county.

She knows who built them, the styles that are akin to certain regions and the names of small details, such as "le petite guichet," the smaller door within a barn's large double doors.

She has learned about the activities that took place in the barns, how hard it is to tear them down and the histories of the families that lived on those farms.

It has taken two years for Alig, director of the Mercer County Historical Society, to compile the information, photograph 2,000 barns on 90 rolls of film and meet all the owners. The result will be a 600-page book titled "Those Magnificent Big Barns in Mercer County of Western Ohio."

"I wanted to do something on agriculture because it's important to Mercer County," she said. "People don't build these big old barns anymore. The pictures show the changes in barns and farming over easy accomplishment. Herman was Edgerton's 'do-everything' player. She could dish off assists (81), pull down rebounds (179), steal the ball (107), shoot with accuracy (field goal-48 percent, freethrow-65 percent) and score 17.7 points per game (425 total-1103 career total).

FLECKER WAS EVEN more surprised with his award than Herman.

"I'm greatly surprised, I assumed that Bettye Jo Hansbarger (Swanton) would garner this honor since she had a great season. It's unusual to have two area teams go undefeated. It's particularly nice to be honored by your peers which makes you feel good about what you are doing."

The Edgerton mentor is a second-time winner as he received the Coach-of-the-Year in 1981, when another former Bulldog, Cathy Taylor, captured the Player-of-the-Year. Flecker has coached the Bulldogs for eight years now, and has compiled a 136-33 record which means he has lost on the average of just over four games per year. That in itself speaks for the his coaching abilities and the talent present in Edgerton. The Bulldogs definitely have had a winning tradition under Flecker's direction.

Herman remarked, "I've been fortunate to have been coached by a great coach. He (Flecker) understands what needs to be done for everyone. He drilled into our heads that the team was more important. Our success came as a result of playing as a team."

PAULDING — Leona Rulman, 82, died Sunday at 2:10 p.m. in Lutheran Hospital, Fort Wayne.

Born on June 6, 1898 in Paulding County, she was the daughter of Peter and Charlotte (Parks) Kemler. She married Ernest Rulman, who is deceased.

She was a member of the Calvary Bible Church, Paulding.

Mrs. Herman's 101st birthday in January gave the family a chance to snap this five generation photo which also includes, left to right, Michael's grandfather Donald Herman, father Kenneth Herman and great grandfather Casimir Herman, all residents of Edgerton, OH. Michael's other grandparents are Ralph and Carol Art and great grandparents Joe and Lillian Adams, all of Hicksville.

Edgerton gal is first team all-state

'Dogs Herman honored

Edgerton's Laura Herman has been chosen to the 1983 United Press International Class A Girls all-Ohio Basketball team while another quartet of area players made honorable mention.

The 5-foot-6 Herman led Edgerton to an unbeaten season, scoring 18 points per contest.

Area gals making honorable mention are Fayette's Pam Borton, Columbus Grove's Michelle Foltz, North Central's Tammy Parker and Continental's Char Smith.

Heading up the all-state team is Stacey Pfeifer of Zanesville Rosecrans, the main cog in the go-go Bishops' machine.

Pfeifer, a four-year starter for Coach Dave Bell, was an overwhelming choice as the Class A player of the year and is joined on the all-Ohio first team by Herman, Mary Ann Stemen of Delphos St. John's, Jackie Fields of Liberty-Benton and Laurie Kehres of Buckeye Central, all seniors.

Pfeifer, who averaged 24.3 points per game during the regular season for the No. 1 rated Bishops, received 23 of 36 votes cast in the player of the year balloting by coaches from around the state. No other player received more than two votes.

The 5-foot-6 Pfeifer shot 53 percent from the field, 74 percent from the free throw line, has 100 steals, 58 assists and 158 rebounds going into the Bishops' State Tournament game Friday afternoon at St. John Arena.

In 82 career games, Pfeifer has 1,408 points for a 17.2 average, despite being hampered nearly half of her sophomore season with a torn thigh muscle.

Besides her basketball talents, Pfeifer also is No. 1 in her class academically with a 4.2 weighted average, with bonus points given for college prep courses.

"She's just a super student," said Bell. "She worries about her academics. She studies until the wee hours of the morning, which worries me as a coach because she doesn't get her rest.

"But she isn't afraid to put out that little extra to be better," Bell added. "She's just a very fine person to be around. She'll attempt to do anything you ask her to do. She might not always get it done, but she'll try."

As for basketball, Bell describes Pfeifer as "quick and with tremendous ball sense. She knows what to do with it.

"Defensively," added Bell, "she's improved 100 percent this year. She now knows what the opposition is trying to do with the ball, something boys come up with but girls have to learn."

In summary, Bell said, "She's just a super person and a super player."

The 5-foot-9 Stemen, who goes head-to-head against Pfeifer Friday afternoon in the Class A semifinals in a game matching the No. 1 and No. 2 teams in the state, averaged 17 points per game in leading the Blue Jays to a 19-1 regular season mark.

Kehres, 5-foot-8 averaged 18.5 per game for Buckeye Central and the 5-foot-4 Fields, of Liberty-Benton, was the top scorer on the first team at 25 per game.

The second team was headed by Tiffin Calvert's 5-foot-6 senior Laurie Goetz, who averaged 23.1 per game.

Others on the second team are 5-foot-6 Heidi Gast of Lakeside Danbury and 5-foot-9 Janet Brazofsky of Thompson Ledgemont, both seniors, and 6-foot-2 Bev Obringer of Marion Local and 5-foot-7 Susan Nash of Rosecrans, both juniors.

Georgetown's Kelly Benintendi, a 5-foot-9 junior, was the top scorer on any of the three squads with her 34.3 average and heads up the third team.

She is joined by 5-foot-8 T.J. Johnson of East Canton, another junior, 5-foot-5 sophomore Lea Ann Mullins of Upper Scioto Valley and 5-foot-10 Lynn Miner of Frankfort Adena and 5-foot-10 Ann Knoll of Collins Western Reserve, both seniors.

DEERFIELD FROM BLOODY BROOK

TO THE RAID OF 1704

The summer of 1675 had produced a good harvest of corn and wheat for the planters of the small village of Pocumtuck (Deerfield). There had been incidents with the Indians since the spring, when the general Indian uprising, known as King Philip's War, broke out, but on September 1, Deerfield was attacked for the first time. No lives were lost, but a few buildings outside the stockade were burned. During this period, other towns along the Connecticut River valley, were also attacked, so troops were hurried from eastern Massachusetts, to build stockades and help on guard duty.

On September 17, a troop of soldiers under Capt. Lathrop of Beverly, called "The Flower of Essex County", was sent to Deerfield for corn and wheat for some of the over-crowded garrisons in the towns below. The next morning 18 great ox-carts loaded with the supplies and driven by men of Deerfield, moved south out of town. They were guarded by Lathrop's 66 men and Capt. Mosely's veteran volunteers scouted the woods. "A few miles of their purposed march was made in safety, and about seven o'clock in the morning they reached a little stream within the township of Deerfield, since called Bloody Brook, in memory of that disastrous day. The stream was bordered by thick woods. As the wagons slowly forded it, tradition relates that the men imprudently put their arms in them, and scattered to gather the wild grapes which hung ripe upon the vines.

"A sudden volley from hundreds of muskets on the right side of the path startled them from their fancied security. Several were killed. A crowd of savages sprang from an ambush, and fell upon the rest, before they had time to form, and regain their weapons. Lathrop was 'a Godly and courageous commander,' but valor so beset was unavailing. The assailants were believed to be notfewer than seven hundred. Lathrop was shot dead early in the action. Seven or eight Englishmen at the utmost escaped. One of these had been stripped, and left for dead, after being wounded, first by a musket ball and then by a tomahawk. Another forced his way through with his musket, with which he laid about him with one arm, after the other was broken."

The dead were all buried in one grave, now distinguished by a memorial stone which arrests the traveler's attention on the side of the highway in South Deerfield. Among the names of the slain, on the stone, may be found that of Jonathan Plympton. He was a little less than eighteen years old, and was driving his father's team. One of those that escaped that day, was Nathaniel Sutleiff, son-in-law of Sergeant John Plympton.

A few days after the massacre, the settlement of Deerfield was abandoned with most of the inhabitants moving to Hatfield and Hadley.

A force of 160 men, including Nathaniel Sutleiff and Joseph Crowfoot, left Hatfield on May 18, 1676, and march north. This force was under the command of Capt. William Turner. The garrisons at Springfield and Westfield furnished 22 men and there were 23 volunteers from Springfield. Joseph Crowfoot was one of these volunteers.

Each man was furnished with provision for three meals. nearly all were mounted, but there were a few footmen. They wended their way along the Pocumtuck path, with fearful glances through the swamp, now in South Deerfield, for the event still called Bloody Brook, where Capt. Lathrop's force had been wiped out eight months before.

Tall Wequamps (now called Sugarloaf) loomed to the northward of them. As they left the gloomy spot the stoutest must have quailed at the uncertainty beyond. Was their leader wise? Did he consider the danger? Was it prudent to neglect precautions against surprise? At any moment the warwhoop of savages arising from ambush might be heard. With sinking hearts they made their way to Old Deerfield, where were the cellars and charred timbers of the once flourishing village. To the north they went, barely escaping discovery at the passage of a stream. The glare of lightning and the growl of thunder added to their nervousness. At the break of day, tired and drenched by a shower, they reached their goal. Leaving his horses under a small guard, Turner led his men through Fall River (now Miller's River), up a steep ascent and came out on a slope in the rear of the Indian camp. The English had not been discovered. With break of day the crack of a 100 shots aroused the stupefied sleepers. Many were killed at the first shot. The survivors in panic jumped for their canoes. Many were swept over the falls and drowned. One English man, being mistaken for an Indian, was shot dead, and another was wounded. The resistance was slight. Wigwams, provisions and ammunition of the Indians were destroyed. Two forges, at which the Indians mended their arms, were demolished and two great pigs of lead, intended for bullets, were thrown into the river. The English delayed too long upon the scene and Capt. Turner being enfeebled by sickness, could not command his men any longer. The English retreated in considerable disorder. Of the heroism of this move there is not space to give details. Then came a report that Philip was at hand with a thousand Indians. The retreat became a rout, breaking up into small parties many were lost. Capt. Turner fell, mortally wounded. Capt. Holyoke by hiscourage saved the day. The force, closely pursued by the Indians, reached Hatfield at last. Forty five men were missing and two mortally wounded. Six came in later. The total lose was thirty nine men, of which, Nathaniel Sutleiff was one of those killed. Joseph Crowfoot may not have been wounded but the strainof the march, the battle and retreat must have been great. Two years later he died.

This battle is known to this day as the Falls Fight and the falls are known as Turner Falls after Capt. Turner who fell during the fighting. About 400 Indians of all sexes and ages were killed. The power of several tribes were broken and warfare receded to the eastward.

No attempt at the resettlement of Deerfield was undertaken until 1677, and then it was considered premature by authorities and others. Four men, including Sergeant John Plympton, believing that the Indians were gone and relying on the fact that King Philip had been killed, returned to once again build their houses. John Plympton's house was the first one in the second settlement of Deerfield.

On September 19, "about sunset, their teams being turned to grass, these men were engaged in little matters pertaining to their several interests, and all enjoying the pleasured of building and preparing a home. No very serious demonstrations had been made by the enemy during the summer, and vigilance was somewhat relaxed. After years of peril and watchfulness, they were inclined to bask in the welcome sunshine of imagined security.

"The Sergeant was within his own house once more. Looking out, he could see the ripening corn in the meadow; nearer by, fruit trees planted years before and growing thriftily. These bring up reminiscences of Jonathan who helped plant them. He missed the stout boy on whom he had hoped to lean in his old age. But mainly his thoughts were cheerful, and hopeful of the future, when suddenly the door was darkened by swarthy forms. A brief struggle,—a stunning blow, and he found himself bound and led away. The exulting, menacing demonstrations of the savages mainly occupied his attention as he was pulled along. He and his companions were taken to the highlands east of the town. Penetrating a heavily wooded ravine, they soon found themselves in the presence of a party of English captives. In the gloomy darkness, it was with difficulty the Sergeant recognized, in blanched and terrified faces, friends and neighbors from Hatfield."

On the trail north to Canada, John Plympton had many opportunities to escape but was afraid that if he did, the Indians would take revenge against the women and children captives. So, John Plympton remained with the group.

Soon after arriving in Canada, John Plympton was burnt at the stake , near Chamblee.

A large number of families,some of them those who had been forced to leave after Bloody Brook, began returning to Deerfield in 1682, and continued to live a relative peaceful life until February 29, 1704, when the Indians and French raided the town, killing 49, capturing 111 and burning most of the houses.

The Story of Deerfield 1630-1930, by Mary William Fuller

Carol E. Plimpton

Originally from New England, Dr. Plimpton was graduated from Russell Sage College in Troy, New York, with a B.S. in physical education. She went on to The Pennsylvania State University to complete the M.Ed. in adapted physical education with an emphasis in perceptual-motor training programs. She taught for 10 years in the Lake Placid Central School system, Lake Placid, New York, primarily on the elementary school level, and instituted a perceptual-motor program designed to teach academics through movement to those primary grade students who were experiencing reading and math problems. High school coaching and elementary intramural and extramural programs were also part of the Lake Placid experience. During her time at Lake Placid, Dr. Plimpton was asked to present numerous workshops and presentations to teachers in various school districts concerning academics through movement and perceptual-motor training to remediate learning disabilities.

In 1982 Dr. Plimpton was granted a sabbatical leave from Lake Placid to attend The Ohio State University to study in the field of motor development. She decided to remain at Ohio

1986- UNIV. OF TOLEDO

State and add teacher education to her program of study. She was graduated in June 1985 with a Ph.D. in physical education.

Research interests for Dr. Plimpton include motor development programs for infants and toddlers, physical fitness measurement and program development for the pre-school child, and particularly the development of the effective elementary physical education teacher. She is a strong advocate of the theory of the importance of sound physical education programs to the elementary school child.

Francis Plimpton

Well-Known Diplomat, Lawyer; Father Of George Plimpton

NEW YORK (AP) — Francis T.P. Plimpton, diplomat, lawyer, civic leader, and father of author George Plimpton, died Saturday, officials at Huntington Hospital on Long Island said. He was 82.

Mr. Plimpton was deputy U.S. ambassador to the United Nations in 1961-65 during the Kennedy and Johnson administrations and led New York City's Bar Association from 1968-70.

In 1933, he co-founded what became one of Manhattan's largest and most successful law firms, Debevoise & Plimpton.

His 60 years of public service also included a decade as chairman of New York City's Board of Ethics and seven years as its official greeter.

Francis Taylor Pearson Plimpton's mother died during his birth on Dec. 7, 1900, and he was reared by his father, who was head of Ginn & Co. publishing house.

He received his early education at the Browning School and his secondary schooling at Phillips Exeter Academy.

Plimpton was graduated magna cum laude, with letters in football, hockey, and tennis, from Amherst College in 1922, and received his law degree from Harvard University three years later.

AUDITOR of STATE

Custodian of Ohio Land Records

Supervisor of School and Ministerial Lands

The map on the opposite side graphically displays the allocations of lands through various grants of the part of the old Northwest Territory that became the great state of Ohio. Ohio became the 17th state in the United States of America through congressional action on March 1, 1803. However, as the map indicates the occupation of lands west, northwest and north of the meandering Ohio River were officially occupied several years earlier. The first of the 18 land grants in the area that is now Ohio was made in 1784; entitled Virginia Military Lands. These lands were awarded to Virginia soldiers of The Revolutionary War, including our First President (The Father of Our Country) George Washington, and Generals George Rogers Clark and Daniel Morgan. General Washington's four tracts of land, comprising 3,051 acres, were located in what is now Clermont County, just north of the Ohio River and east of what is now Cincinnati.

(This map is made available to the public by the Auditor of State in the hopes of generating further interest by Ohioans in the development of their great state.)

Thurs. A.M.

Dear Lucy,

The Williams County Chapter, Ohio Genealogical Society, is looking forward to hearing you talk on "Genetics and Genealogy" at our next meeting, Monday October 11, at 7:30 P.M. at the Bryan East-end Park Community room.

Directions: at the courthouse go east on High St., which is State Rts. 34 & 2, about 1¼ mile. You will pass McDonalds and Ponderosa on the right, Wendys on the left, the abandoned K-Mart building and Riter Body Shop on the right. The park is "fenced in" with trees and shrubs on the right. Just after turning in the drive

the building on the right is the Community room, and our meeting place.
Looking forward to hearing
you!
Best regards!

About the cast....

Claudette R. Davis (Wolf Moon Dance) Celebrating 12 years as producer at Ms. Rose, I am very excited to bring "Escanaba In Da Moonlight" back for the third year. My husband Marty and I are the owners of the D C Ranch Complex and redesigned the Rose Room as the dual purpose theater/banquet hall in 1992. I enjoyed playing the characters Nurse McIntosh in "The Sunshine Boys" and Melissa in "Love Letters", but nothing can beat "Wolf Moon Dance" in this fabulous comedy. So sit back with a pint of your favorite beverage and have a ball. Break a leg Soady's and gang!! Merri & Ken too!

Steve Horowitz (Albert Saody) Has appeared with the Black Swamp Players (The Curious Savage, The Sunshine Boys & The Hound of the Baskervilles), The Village Players (Over the River and Through the Woods, A Little Night Music, and Arsenic and Old Lace), Waterville Playshop (Annie, and Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat), BGSU Summer Theater (Guys and Dolls), and the Dearborn Theater Guild (Once Upon a Mattress, Mixed Doubles, and Nightwatch), He is an Associate Professor of Health Promotion at BGSU. As hobbies, Steve likes to do calligraphy, photography, travel and collect teapots that don't look like teapots. He is thrilled to be at Ms. Rose's and working with such a talented cast and director.

Thomas Kleinert (Ranger Tom) Happier than a moose in mating season to be returning to "Escanaba". I can be seen from Columbus to Akron performing with "Random Acts", "Around the Bend Players" and direct my improv group "Not the Imposters".

Nate Kutz (Jimmer) Reknown with many shows in the Toledo area such as Y.P.G. with the Toledo Rep, Random Acts and Pocket Sandwich in Dallas Texas. Extremely glad to return as "Jimmer" again this year--get ready for a gooood time sh eh!

Thom Sinn (Reuben Soady) Happily acknowledges the loving and continuous support of his wife Robin, and daughter, Naomi, as he pursues a career in acting. Thom is also grateful to Claudette and Marty Davis for their encouragement as a budding director, most recently for Barnboozled and soon for the David Ives comedy Polish Joke. Finally, to all who support live theatre in this region, please come back and see Thom this winter as he sings his way into your heart in Forever Plaid.

Rick Woods (Remnar Soady) Shining to be back as "Remnar". Since my last trip to Camp I played Aylmer in "Barnboozled". Past views of me at Ms. Rose's include "Norman Is That You?", "Gifts of the Magi", "The Odd Couple","Moon Over Buffalo", and "Guys On Ice".

Director ~~ Merri Bame Since Escanaba last year, has directed and performed in The Laramie Project at Owens Comunity College and also performed at UT in Lady M. She finds it a treat to be involved with the theater folk around NW Ohio and welcomes Ken as the newest Escanaba set builder/stage manager/tech operator and Steve as the newest Albert Soady. Nate, Thom, Rick, Claudette and Tom are all additional treates to work with. And of course, Merri welcomes all of you audience to Ms. Rose's. With you we are encouraged to connect. Without you, we only pay attention to ourselves.

Set Design/Construction-Stage Manager ~~~ Ken E. Gillen
Performed at Ms. Rose's Dinner Theater in the summer production of "Barnboozled: He Won't Come In From The Barn". Kenny also designed and built the sets for both "Barnboozled" and Escanaba".

Ken says: "lift up your pint and enjoy the show"!

A special thank you to Rob Wieland.

Interior farmers needed routes to dispose of their farm products. A system of canals was proposed and begun on July 4th 1825 at Licking Summit near Newark. Few railroads were in Ohio by the early 1840s. By 1850 the great railroad boom was well underway. The Canals carried twice as much freight in 1850 as the railroads, but ten years later this was reversed. Almost overnight canals and stage coaches were old fashioned, and soon replaced by railroads. The Ohio & Erie Canal was not abandoned until 1913. This map shows which counties were most affected by canals.

Massachusetts and Connecticut Puritans settled early in the area which is now Washington, Noble, Morgan, Athens, Meigs, & Gallia Cos. Virginias and Kentuckians in 1800 settled in what was known as the Virginia Military Bounty (between the Scioto and Little Miami Rivers.)
Kentucky and Tennessee settlers came to Ross County around Chillicothe.
Pennsylvania sent large groups of Scotch-Irish, Germans and Quakers to what is now known as counties of Columbia, Carroll, Jefferson, Harrison, Belmont, and Monroe.
New Jersey sent settlers of Scotch-Irish and Dutch descent to the southwestern corner of Ohio.
Connecticut settlers and a few other New Englanders settled the Western Reserve (northeast) in the area known as "The Fire Lands".
Canadians settled in the "Refugee Tract", created in 1801 by Congress. This concerned counties of Franklin, Licking and Perry.

HOLMES COUNTY

ESTABLISHED: 1825.

NAMED FOR: Major Holmes, War of 1812.

GEOGRAPHY: Holmes County, located about [illegible] miles south of Cleveland, has numerous springs. There are limestone and coal deposits in the southeast section. Killbuck Creek crosses the county.

HISTORICAL: This area was settled by Amish immigrants from Germany and Switzerland. Today [illegible] has the greatest concentration of Amish people in the nation and more Mennonites than Switzerland. The Amish are exceptional farmers who lead a life of simplicity dictated by the church. Their clothes and homes are without decoration. [illegible] modern mechanical appliances are allowed. Most Amish still drive a horse and buggy. They are pacifists. MILLERSBURG is considered the center of Amishland.

Founded by the Germans, BERLIN is a trade center for Amish farmers.

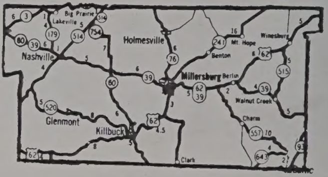
Fort Fizzle, near Glenmont, was the site of a small rebellion during the Civil War. The uprising "fizzled out" as soon as a force of soldiers [illegible] to settle the disturbance.

WINESBURG was made famous by the title of Sherwood Anderson's book "Winesburg Ohio." The stories were written about Clyde, Ohio, the author's boyhood home.

TOURIST ATTRACTIONS: Holmes County Antique Festival (October), Millersburg.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY: Holmes County Historical Society, Millersburg.

ECONOMIC: Principal industries – stone-clay-glass, furniture and fixtures, food, lumber, rubber. Manufactured goods – wire baskets, rest-room fixtures, file drawers, upholstery, bus seats, duplicating machine solutions, rubber and clay products. Agriculture – dairy products.



CITIES AND VILLAGES: No cities. Millersburg (3,413) is the county seat and largest village in the county.

Other Villages: *Baltic, 9; Glenmont, 316; Holmesville, 428; Killbuck, 925; *Loudonville, 23; Nashville, 235; balance of county, 18,131.

John Skeel's wife was Hannah, daughter of Roger Fenill, of Woodbury, where he died April 17, 1722. William and Abigail Bennett had the following named children, all born in Fairfield: Sarah, born March 17, 1734, married Jabez Lockwood; Thaddeus, born June 22, 1736; Deliverance, born February 27, 1738; William, born July 5, 1741; Mary, born August 25, 1743; Joseph, born September 17, 1745; Stephen, born December 18, 1747; Abigail, born December 30, 1749, married Samuel Smith.

Thaddeus Bennett, eldest son of William and Abigail (Hickock) Bennett, was born June 22, 1736, died January 20, 1823, and was buried near Weston, Connecticut. He married, April 15, 1761, Mary Platt, born April 15, 1742, died October 2, 1819. She was a daughter of Ebenezer and Tabitha Hickock Platt, granddaughter of John Platt, Jr., of Newtown, Connecticut, who was a son of Deacon Josiah and grandson of Deacon Richard Platt, of Milford, Connecticut. The wife of Josiah Platt was Sarah, daughter of Sergeant Thomas Canfield, or Camfield, of Milford, brother of Matthew, who was named in the charter of Charles II of Connecticut. Thomas Canfield was deputy from Milford to the general court of Connecticut 1674-76.

Platt Bennett, third child of Thaddeus and Mary (Platt) Bennett, was born in Fairfield, Connecticut, July 28, 1770, died in Horseheads, New York, April 22, 1848, and was buried at Elmira, New York. He married, July 29, 1791, his cousin, Martha Wheeler, born March 16, 1771, died at Horseheads, New York, September 2, 1844, and she lies beside her husband. She was a daughter of Calvin and Mary (Thorpe) Wheeler, granddaughter of Ephraim Wheeler and his wife Martha Bulkeley, who descended from the Rev. Peter Bulkeley, of Concord, Massachusetts, through Daniel and Hannah (Bartram) Bulkeley, Joseph and Martha tate which had been acquired by his grandfather William Gregory, principally by grazing. The Gregorys of Lenton, co. Nott., still bear the arms last referred to.

The Henry Gregory, of Boston, N. E., whom we find mentioned in the foregoing pedigree, was at Springfield 1639, and removed in a few years to Stratford, Ct. Savage says that he probably died soon after, as a distribution of his estate was ordered 19 June, 1655, his eldest son John being appointed administrator, and to receive double portion, and that no other children are mentioned; though perhaps Judah Gregory, of Springfield, who m. 1643, Sarah, dau. of Henry Burt, was another son. John Gregory, of New-Haven, and afterwards of Norwalk, Ct., was possibly the administrator above referred to; he had Joseph, bapt. 26 July, 1646; Thomas, 19 Mch, 1648; his other children and their issue are mentioned by Savage, and by Hall in his history of Norwalk; of his daus. two m. into the family of Thomas Benedict, of Southold, L. I., and afterwards of Norwalk, who came out at the age of 22 about 1639, and was said to be the only son of Wm. Benedict, of Nottinghamshire.

According to an inscription on stone set into the front of one of four tenements in Barkergate, Nottingham, William Gregory, gent., by will 1650 left 12d. a week for ever, to be raised out of the rents of these houses, and to be given in bread every Sunday, to twelve poor people of the parish of St. Mary's, and to this amount his son John added by will, in 1654, an additional 12d. a week. The arms of this latter John Gregory, as they occur in St. Peter's church, are as follows: Gregory,[1] quartering Ormeston or Urmeston, viz. 1st and 4th, Party per pale argent and azure, 2 lions rampant endorsed, counterchanged. 2nd and 3rd, Sable, a chevron between three spear-heads all within a bordure, argent. This coat is empaled with that of Alton quartering Kyme, viz.: 1st and 4th, Or, on a chief vert, a lion passant of the field; 2nd and 3rd, Gules, a chevron between ten cross-crosslets or.

But in 1662, George Gregory (son of John), then in his 23d year, not being able to show sufficient proof of his descent from the Highhurst Gregorys, received from Wm. Dugdale, Norroy, the following new grant of arms: Gules, on a chevron betw. ten crosses crosslet or, three crosses crosslet of the first, in relation to his descent from the ancient family of Kyme, founded by Simon de Kyme, Lord of Kesteven, co. Linc., temp. Stephen. The crest granted at the same time (a garb or, banded gules) was doubtless in reference to the family es-

EARLY SETTLERS OF STRATFORD, CONN.

Stratford began to be settled in 1639, under the name of Cupheage, and became a plantation in 1640. The town records commence about 1650. The original territory of Stratford reached back from the sea 12 miles, and included the present townships of Stratford, Huntingdon, Monroe, Trumbull and Bridgeport. The original proprietors of Stratford by tradition are reported to have been 17.

The following large list was taken from the town records, and probably was made before 1650, as William Burritt died that year.

ley) Barnes wife of his brother Stephen Barnes. (THE REGISTER, supra, 123:88-90).

Benjamin married secondly, HANNAH (SUTLIFF) WHEADON; daughter of Nathaniel and Hannah (Plympton) Sutliff, and widow of Thomas Wheadon, Jr., born at Medfield, Mass., 19 Dec. 1665, died 25 Nov. 1743 in her 79th year (g.s. North Branford).

Benjamin Barnes, called Sergeant and Deacon, settled in Branford by 1700, and was followed there shortly afterwards by his brother Stephen. Abigail and Benjamin "Barns" were entered as becoming members of the Branford Church in 1700, and their seven children were baptized there on 25 Jan. 1732, Deacon Benjamin Barns and his children, Daniel, Nathaniel, Timothy and Ebenezer Barns, John Baldwin and wife Eleanor, and Abigail and Thankful Barns divided land which came from Abigail Barns, dec'd., mother of the said children (Branford Deeds, 5:292). Mr. Scilly has studied the description of the said land and found that it corresponds to land set to Abigail Linsley.

Evidence of the identity of Benjamin's second wife is found in Branford Deeds (6:648) when on 3 Nov. 1747 land was set out to Hannah (Wheadon) Plant "in the 3rds of her Dec'd. Mother Hannah Whedon (alias) Barns."

Administration on the estate of Deacon Benjamin Barns was granted, to his son Nathaniel Barns 14 Aug. 1740, the inventory was taken by Deacon Samuel Harrington and Ens. Josiah Rogers (Guilford Probate records, (4:63, 66).

Children by first wife, born at Branford:

i. ELEANOR,^{3} bapt. Sept. (?) 1700; d. 2 July 1778 ae. 82 (g.s. Northford in North Branford); mar. (as his 2nd wife) JOHN BALDWIN, son of Richard and Amy (Oviat), bapt. at Milford, Conn., 14 April 1695, d. 18 July 1774 aged 80 (g.s. Northford).
ii. ABIGAIL, bapt. Aug. 1701; d. s.p. in 1745; mar. JOSEPH DARWIN.
iii. DANIEL, bapt. July 1704; res. Litchfield, Conn., and New Ashford, Mass.; mar. 21 March 1727/8, ANN BROCKETT; dau. of Moses and Ann (Grannis), b. at New Haven, 27 Sept. 1707.

JOHNSON (Edward)

by Donald Lines Jacobus

1. EDWARD JOHNSON, of unknown origin, buried Branford, Conn., 18 June 1736; m. ca. 1689, Esther Wheadon, b. New Haven, 26 Jan. 1667/8, d. at Branford, 1739, daughter of Thomas and Anne (Harvey) Wheadon, q.v.

He first appears in Branford shortly before his marriage. On 30 Dec. 1697 he was elected Constable for the following year [Branford Deeds, 2:108]. He and his wife joined the other heirs in dividing the estate of their father Thomas Wheadon of Branford, following the latter's death in 1691 [New Haven Prob., 2:88, 118].

Edward Johnson's will, made 10 May 1736, proved 19 July 1736, named his wife Esther; daughters Elizabeth Morris and Esther; eight children, Amos, Edward, Ebenezer, Cornelius, Timothy, Elizabeth, Experience, and Esther [Guilford Prob., 3:218]. His widow made her will in 1737 and it was proved two years later; she named the same eight children and a granddaughter Elizabeth Morris. The daughter Esther Johnson died unmarried and her will, made 11 July 1752, proved in 1757, made the daughters of her brothers Cornelius and Timothy and of her sister Morris her chief heirs. The son Amos also died unmarried and in 1760 his estate was ordered distributed to his brothers and sisters.

i. Elizabeth, b. 6 Dec. 1690; m. (as his second wife) Joseph Morris of Branford, b. at New Haven, ca. 1688.
ii. Amos, b. 30 Jan. 1692/3; d. unmarried in 1760.
iii. Experience, b. 20 May 1695; m. 9 Jan. 1717/18, Robert Sloper.

The Fancher Family

CATHERINE[1] FANCHER, whose parents and date of birth are unknown, is believed to have been the eldest of the Fanchers with whom this genealogy is concerned. That she was the sister of William[1] Fancher is established by the record that her son, Samuel Elwell, married his "cousin," Hannah Fancher, the daughter of William[1] Fancher, and a like record of the daughter of William that she married her "cousin" Samuel Elwell. Because of the proximity of their homes, nearness of age and inter-family relations, it is the opinion of the compiler that Catherine and William were of the same Fancher family as Hannah and John, alleged by descendants to have been brother and sister, and of Richard and David, and it is assumed for the purposes of this genealogy, that all six were brothers and sisters. Because of the earlier marriage of Catherine, in 1717, it has been presumed that she was older than her brother William, who was married in 1723, and accordingly her record is treated first.

Catherine Fancher was married in Branford, Conn., 14 Aug. 1717 to EBENEZER ELWELL, son of Samuel and Sarah (Wheadon) Elwell, who was born in Branford 28 Oct. 1690 and died in Plymouth, Conn., 24 Dec. 1754. Catherine died in Plymouth 9 Jan. 1743/4, and after her death Mr. Elwell married, secondly, in Waterbury, Conn., 17 July 1744, Hannah Scott of Waterbury.

Ebenezer Elwell and family were among the first settlers of Plymouth, formerly called Northbury, going there about 1732 from Branford. Anne, daughter of Ebenezer and Catherine Elwell, was the second child and first girl born in Plymouth.

Children (surname ELWELL), first six born in Branford:

i. EBENEZER, b. 9 June 1721; d. in Pymouth, 14 Jan. 1767; m. (1) 20 Nov. 1741, RUTH MOSS, dau. of Solomon Moss; m. (2) 24 Sept. 1745, MARY DUNBAR.
ii. SARAH, b. 4 Jan. 1722/3. Not mentioned in father's will of 8 Dec. 1753.
iii. CATHARINE, b. 25 Sept. 1724.
iv. JUDITH, b. 20 Sept. 1726.
v. LYDIA, b. 9 Aug. 1728.
vi. JONATHAN, b. 5 Jan. 1730/1.
vii. ANNE, b. in Plymouth, 5 Dec. 1733.
viii. SAMUEL, b. in Plymouth, 27 April 1736; m. in Plymouth, 1 March 1755, HANNAH FANCHER (his first cousin), dau. of William and Thankful (Thomson) Fancher, born in Branford, 11 April 1736. They moved to

William^1 Fancher, believed to have been a brother of John^1 Fancher, first settler of Poundridge, N. Y., is found in Branford, Conn., as early as 1723 where his marriage took place on 20 Nov. 1723 with Thankful Thomson, daughter of John and Hannah (Wheadon) Thomson, who was born in Branford 7 July 1705. The marriage was performed by Samuel Russell. It is significant that Thankful Thomson and Samuel Elwell, who married Catherine^1 Fancher, were both grandchildren of Thomas Wheadon, one of the first settlers of Branford, which is one of the facts which have led to the assumption that William and Catherine were brother and sister. William and his wife died a day apart, Thankful Fancher passing away on 19 August 1759 and William 20 August 1759.

William Fancher's name appears in various early reports. Branford Town Records of 1694-1788 state: "Entered the earmark of William Fancher which is two nicks or slits crossways of ye right ear on the under side, May ye 18; 1724" referring to his cattle marks. Branford Land Records state that on 1 Feb. 1728/9 (vol. 5, p. 99) "John Whedon of Branford sells to Ebenezer Elwell and William Fancher of Branford yeoman 9 acres in the Gusset. (First land transaction)." The same records, vol. 6, pp. 63, 64, show that William Fancher bought 214 acres of land in Waterbury, Conn., 19 Jan. 1745/6, and his name appears on the list of taxpayers in that town in 1746. His will, recorded in Woodbury Probate Records, vol. 4, p. 112, as drawn 16 Aug. 1759 and probated 4 Dec. 1759, show that William was a farmer and owned a large farm.

William Fancher removed from Branford to Waterbury about 1745 or 1746, being on the list of taxpayers in Waterbury from 1746. When his will was drawn in 1759 he was called of "Northbury" (now Thomaston or Plymouth.) That he lived in Branford as late as 1739 is evidenced by the fact he was received as a member of the Branford Congregational church in July of that year.

As several of the children were under age at the death of their parents, guardians had to be appointed. John, who was of age, became the guardian of his brothers Jehiel, Thomas and Ithiel; William became the guardian of his brother Ichabod and one Zachariah Sanford became the guardian of Lemuel. The guardianship appointments are found in Woodbury Probate Records, vol. 4, pp. 112 to 125,and vol. 5, p. 118.

ley) Barnes wife of his brother Stephen Barnes. (The Register, supra, 123:88-90).

Benjamin married secondly, Hannah (Sutliff) Wheadon; daughter of Nathaniel and Hannah (Plympton) Sutliff, and widow of Thomas Wheadon, Jr., born at Medfield, Mass., 19 Dec. 1665, died 25 Nov. 1743 in her 79th year (g.s. North Branford).

Benjamin Barnes, called Sergeant and Deacon, settled in Branford by 1700, and was followed there shortly afterwards by his brother Stephen. Abigail and Benjamin "Barns" were entered as becoming members of the Branford Church in 1700, and their seven children were baptized there on 25 Jan. 1732, Deacon Benjamin Barns and his children, Daniel, Nathaniel, Timothy and Ebenezer Barns, John Baldwin and wife Eleanor, and Abigail and Thankful Barns divided land which came from Abigail Barns, dec'd., mother of the said children (Branford Deeds, 5:292). Mr. Scilly has studied the description of the said land and found that it corresponds to land set to Abigail Linsley.

Evidence of the identity of Benjamin's second wife is found in Branford Deeds (6:648) when on 3 Nov. 1747 land was set out to Hannah (Wheadon) Plant "in the 3rds of her Dec'd. Mother Hannah Whedon (alias) Barns."

Administration on the estate of Deacon Benjamin Barns was granted, to his son Nathaniel Barns 14 Aug. 1740, the inventory was taken by Deacon Samuel Harrington and Ens. Josiah Rogers (Guilford Probate records, (4:63, 66).

Children by first wife, born at Branford:

i. Eleanor,[3] bapt. Sept. (?) 1700; d. 2 July 1778 ae. 82 (g.s. Northford in North Branford); mar. (as his 2nd wife) John Baldwin, son of Richard and Amy (Oviat), bapt. at Milford, Conn., 14 April 1695, d. 18 July 1774 aged 80 (g.s. Northford).

ii. Abigail, bapt. Aug. 1701; d. s.p. in 1745; mar. Joseph Darwin.

iii. Daniel, bapt. July 1704; res. Litchfield, Conn., and New Ashford, Mass.; mar. 21 March 1727/8, Ann Brockett; dau. of Moses and Ann (Grannis), b. at New Haven, 27 Sept. 1707.

iv. Nathaniel, bapt. Oct. 1707; d. at Plymouth, Conn., 28 April 1781 aged 73; mar. (1) at Branford, 16 Nov. 1732, Elizabeth Bartholomew; dau. of Isaac and Rebecca (———) b. at Branford 12 April 1704; mar. (2) Sarah ———, who d. at Plymouth 3 Aug. 1801 aged 87 (g.s.), having mar. (2) Ebenezer Darrow.

v. Timothy, bapt. July 1710; d. at Litchfield, Conn., 10 Oct. 1750 in 41st yr. (g.s. Morris); mar. 6 Dec. 1733, Phebe Barnes; dau. of Thomas and Joanna (Farnum), b. at New Haven 1 Aug. 1712, d. at Litchfield 15 April 1793 in 81st yr. (g.s.); she mar. (2) 8 April 1751, Deacon James Morris.

vi. Ebenezer, bapt. 7 Feb. 1713/14; mar. Abigail Pardee, dau. of John and Abigail (Brockett), b. at New Haven 15 April 1717.

vii. Thankful, bapt. 27 May 1716; mar. ca. 1744, Stephen Lee.

5. Stephen[2] Barnes, born probably about 1674. He married Mary Barnes, daughter of John and Hannah (Linsley) Barnes. Their first three children were recorded at East Hampton, the others at Branford, Conn., hence they appear to have moved to Branford about 1701/2.

Subject: Re: [OHHOLMES] Re: farmerstown Cemetery list

Joe,
I have found several John Wolgamots listed. I believe I finally found your John buried in Oakhill Cemetery in Millersburg. They are listed among a lot of Wolgamots. I am guessing, but cannot be sure, they are all related. I decided to list all of the Wolgamot(t)s listed in the books. I hope they help you out.

BRUEN

The royal lineage of many of our early New Jersey families

Please visit Gee Gee's BRUEN page for the latest research findings!!

As published in "Whallon and Kitchell Families" by Edward Payson Whallon, 1932

Note from Edward Payson Whallon:
This genealogy may be traced through "Burke's Peerage," "Burke's General Armory," and "Americans of Royal Descent," and as given here may be relied on as correct.

Variations, as given in "The Willis Family" and "John Kitchel and Esther Peck," give five generations of the DeMontfort line in this lineage, from 1326 to 1483; several generations of the de Say family of Magna Charta Barons, from 1315 to 1397; and through Henry I, the Malcolms of Scotland, Alfred the Great, and Egbert, King of Britain, died 836, descended from Cerdic, who lived in 510. Katherine Montfort, who married Sir George Booth, who died in 1483, had Sir William Booth, who married Lady Ellen, daughter of Sir John Montgomery.

Another interesting variation traces the Kitchell family back for several generations in England. Instead of going back from Abraham Kitchell, who married Sarah Bruen, to trace the line through English, Scotch, French and Italian Kings to Pepin and to Cerdic, the line may run through Samuel Kitchel, Robert Kitchel, who came to New Haven in 1639, to Thomas Kitchel, born 1622, who married Deborah Bowle, daughter of John Bowle; his father, Thomas Kitchel, who married Jane Barnes, and his grandfather, John Kitchel.

1. Obadiah Bruen, born 1606
2. John Bruen, born 1560.
3. John Bruyn
4. John Bruyn and Dorothy Holford, Lady
5. Sir Thomas Holford and Jane Booth, Lady
6. Sir John Holford and Margaret Brereton
7. Sir George Holford and Isabel Leigh

to Newark, N. J. No evidence for this has been found in original records or in any of the books which make the claim. Other publications try to connect her with the Crane family of Wethersfield. It must be stated, however, that the present compiler has found no reason for supposing that she was a Crane at all, except that she has been called Crane in print, which is not a cogent reason for accepting the name unless the evidence for it is stated.

Thomas was confirmed Sergeant of the Milford Trainband, May 1669, and served as Deputy, Oct. 1673, Oct. 1674, Oct. 1676, Oct. 1681, Oct. 1683, Nov. 1683, May and July 1684.[b]

The will of Thomas Canfield, Sr., dated 13 Feb. 1687/8, mentioned his wife Phebe; three married daughters, Sarah, Phebe, and Elizabeth; daughter Abigail; three unmarried daughters; two sons, Thomas and Jeremiah; and son John Smith. His inventory, taken 22 Aug. 1689, calls him Sergeant.[c]

The will of Phebe Canfield, made 28 July 1690, named her daughters Mary, Hannah, Mehitabel, Sarah Platt, Phebe Smith, Elizabeth Baldwin, Abigail Staples; son Jeremiah Canfield; with legacies to grandson Thomas Canfield and to Rebecca Canfield. Proved 12 Nov. 1690, and administration granted to her daughter Mary Canfield.[c] he U.S. Postal Service will mmemorate the 50th anniverary of the Department of the Air orce — as a separate military service — with a new 32-cent stamp in September.

The stamp features the Air Force's Thunderbird jets flying in a classic diamond formation. The Thunderbirds are aerial demonstration planes, performing publicly at air shows and U.S. Air Force events across the country.

At the bottom left of the stamp is the inscription "US Department of the Air Force 1947-1997."

The Department of the Air Force was created when President Harry S. Truman signed the National Security Act, ending the Air Force's 40-year association with the U.S. Army.

A Postal Service spokesman said, "This stamp pays tribute not only to the dazzling technology and strategic importance of this national asset, it honors men and women who dedicated their careers, and sometimes gave their lives, to protect our country and preserve our freedom."

In 1957, the USPS recognized the 50th anniversary of the Air Force from its beginning in 1907 as part of the U.S. Army with a 6-cent airmail stamp.

Further information as to the exact date and place of issuance for first-day cancellations of the new stamp will be announced here when available.

Royal families are featured

King Henry VIII and his six ives appear on a new set of ven stamps issued by Great itain to mark the 450th annisary of the British monarch's death. Each stamp has a 26 pence value. The wives are portrayed on a vertical se-tenent (attached) strip of stamps. Henry's stamp, however, is separate and has a square format.

The wives depicted are: Catherine of Aragon, Anne Boleyn, Jane Seymour, Anne of Cleaves, Catherine Howard and Catherine Parr.

Some of the portraits of the wives are by Tudor artist Hans Holbein, reported the Royal Mail of London. Other designs were taken from unknown artists of that period.

As history reveals, the king attempted to divorce his first wife when she was unable to bear him a son, but the pope refused to grant the divorce. This confrontation led to the severing of ties between the English church and the pope.

King Henry VIII previously appeared on a British stamp (15½ pence) in 1982 as part of the Maritime Heritage series.

The stamps of Great Britain are Available at your local dealer.

Mantle honored

St. Vincent and the Grenadines, an island nation in the eastern Caribbean, continues its series honoring sports legends of the 20th century. Latest to be featured on a set of stamps and a souvenir sheet is Mickey Mantle, the late New York Yankees' slugger.

During his 18-year career with the Yankees, Mantle led the American League in home runs four times. His career home runs totaled 536. He was named the league's most valuable player three times.

The souvenir sheet displays a large portrait of Mantle.

The stamps of St. Vincent and the Grenadines are available at your local dealer.

father.

"When Daniel was about 7 years old, it was a big deal for me because he was about that age when we got him a Green Bay Packers' uniform, helmet and shoulder pads. I'd roll around with him in the back yard and tackle him. It was good fun. Then we'd come in and clean up and sit in front of the TV and watch the football game that Sunday.

"My one son (Nathan), he kind of liked the Cowboys. I would always put the Cowboys down and finally, he came around to being a Packers' fan," he laughs.

Sobota speaks, like many devout fans of a certain team, as if he is part owner by using the word "we" when speaking of the Packers ... "We've been through a lot of non-winning seasons. We went from Super Bowls I and II to being happy with 'good' seasons of 8-8.

"I remember when I went into the service back in 1974, I was stationed over in Germany and one of my good friends in Germany was from Minnesota and he rooted for the Vikings. When the two played, we'd get together. My big brother is a Bears' fan and we get together and root for each other's team, until they play each other."

Gary "Jiggs" Devine, also of Defiance, also has a family full of Green Bay fans.

Born in Wisconsin, it was easy for Devine to become a Packers' fan.

"We were up there last year for their spring training camp," Devine says. "Everybody in the family are Packers' fans ... we were born that way, I guess."

Like Sobota, Devine remembers the seasons after Super Bowl I and II when Green Bay was noted more for its cold weather than i football team.

"It's a lot easier being a Packers' fan now," Devine says. "Du ing the late '70s and '80s, peop just laughed at you. We always had to keep saying, 'They'll be back.' We finally got to the top now."

Devine says he's finding more and more Green Bay fans coming "out of the closet," especially this year.

"Since Cleveland doesn't have a team, there are a lot more Packers' fans around here. There were a lot of fans hidden for a while.

"There's a guy I work with from Antwerp, he's having heck of a party," Devine says. "He's having the party in a 40 by 60 pole barn and has got a couple of big screen TVs ..."

There's something special about those Green Bay fans. Without a doubt, they're loyal and dedicated. And lately, there seems to be more and more.

Sutcliffe leads Orioles past Tigers

BALTIMORE (AP) — At age 37, Rick Sutcliffe doesn't have the fastball he once did. Sometimes, though, he thinks he does.

That's when he gets into trouble.

Using an assortment of sliders, breaking pitches and an occasional fastball — just for variety — Sutcliffe led the Baltimore Orioles past the Detroit Tigers 6-2 Wednesday night.

Sutcliffe took a six-hitter and a 6-1 lead into the ninth. He easily got the first two outs and then, with the crowd standing and cheering for the final out, he gave up a double to Scott Livingstone and an RBI-single to Dan Gladden.

"The crowd got behind me and I got kind of stupid," Sutcliffe said. "I thought I could blow people out. I couldn't, but then I came to my senses."

He rebounded to get Tony Phillips on a game-ending groundout, sealing his first complete game since last July 10 and the first against the Tigers this season.

"He got ahead and threw all of his pitches for strikes," Livingstone said. "Sutcliffe is a crafty pitcher. He threw all the right pitches at the right time. We hit some balls, but we just didn't get it done with men on base."

Sutcliffe (8-2) walked three and struck out four to improve to 6-0 since April 27. Although he retired the side in order three times, the right-hander often had to work out of difficulty, stranding eight runners.

"When he needed to make the pitches tonight, he made them," Baltimore manager Johnny Oates said.

Chris Hoiles hit his fourth homer in three games and Cal Ripken hit a two-run shot for the Orioles, whose 16th victory in 19 games drew them within six games of the league-leading Tigers in the AL East.

"Last year we were always looking up at everybody. Now we're looking down from the top of the division,' Livingstone said. "It seems like when we come to town, everybody is shooting for us and everybody is getting excited and pumped up for us.

"That's a weird feeling because we're not used to being up there."

Detroit, which had homered in nine straight games, had six singles and a pair of doubles against Sutcliffe.

The victory assured the Orioles of their seventh straight series victory, a feat they haven't accomplished since May 1986. Detroit is now 0-9 at Camden Yards.

"Every year you are going to have some place that gives you trouble, and it looks like this is the joint," said Detroit manager Sparky Anderson, who once again was foiled in his bid to win his 2,040th game and move into a fifth-place tie with Walter Alston on the all-time managing list.

for a "wife of Edward" Lacy is entered in 1758 as a church member in New Fairfield. However, in 1760, he is described as "late of Fairfield, now of Danbury." The birth of only the eldest child of Edward, Ebenezer, is recorded at Fairfield, and at Stratfield Church only Ebenezer and two other children were baptized, in 1704, 1705 and 1708. Since the Stratfield Church records are very complete to 1718 (after which there is a gap), and no baptismal records of other churches in the vicinity of Stratfield relate to children of Edward Lacy, perhaps the three recorded children were all the children he had.

Children of Edward and Abigail (Gregory) Lacy, born at Stratfield:

+ i. EBENEZER^{3}, b. 12 Mar. 1703/4; bapt. 19 Mar. 1703/4.

ii. ABIGAIL, bapt. 3 June 1705; living in 1773; m. SAMUEL WHEELER, bapt. at Stratfield, 20 Apr. 1701, d. at New Fairfield, Conn., in 1773.

iii. REBECCA, bapt. 11 Apr. 1708.

III. EBENEZER LACY[c]

EBENEZER^3 LACY, born at Stratfield, Conn., 12 Mar. 1703/4, died probably at New Fairfield, Conn.; married by 1726 JEDIDAH JACKSON, baptized at Stratfield, 22 Apr. 1705, died after 30 Jan. 1775, daughter of Henry and Mary (Wheeler) Jackson.

Ebenezer Lacy and Jedidah his wife, of Stratfield, sold 30 Dec. 1726 to Daniel Comstock a right to land from their father, Henry Jackson; and Ebenezer and Jedidah, of Fairfield, on 14 Nov. 1743 conveyed to their brother David Jackson, Jr., a right in the dwelling house of their father, Mr. Henry Jackson of Fairfield, deceased.[d] They gave other deeds, but the above are sufficient to prove that Jedidah Jackson was Ebenezer's wife and that she must have been mother of all the children of Ebenezer born between 1726 and 1743.

The Stratfield Church baptisms are very incomplete after 1718, and for quite a long period, into the 1730's, only scattering baptisms were entered. The only child of Ebenezer whose baptism was recorded was Isaac in 1735, and since we know that Ebenezer's marriage occurred at least nine years before that, we place the undoubted older children on the basis of other records and their dates of marriage.

On 7 Feb. 1749/50, Ebenezer Lacey of Stratfield conveyed land to Ebenezer Hall of Stratfield; and on 6 Apr. 1751, Ebenezer Lacey of New Fairfield conveyed to William Odell of Stratfield.[e] These deeds fix the date of the family's removal to New Fairfield as 1750. The destruction in 1832 of the vital and land records of New Fairfield, and lack of probate of Ebenezer in the Danbury District, impair our ability to give a full account of this family. We are thrown back on the very meagre information contained in the New Fairfield Church

Hi Lucy,

Here's the information from the Section "Halls of Wallingford" — Once you look it over, let me know if you see families with numbers, for example James (family 20) which you'd like. I'll copy more for you if I missed any. The only way I can tell is when the "family #'s stop.

Subject: Ephraim Wheeler

I too am related to Ephraim Wheeler through Rebecca. And also through Ruth Wheeler, her sister. Seems to me to be much intermarrige within this family. My line goes like this:

Ephraim Wheeler+Ann Turney

Ruth Wheeler+Saml Gregory
Saml Gregory,Jr.+Mary Sullivan(or Silliman)
Beulah Gregory+Adoniram Treadwell
John Treadwell+Sarah Herring
Miriam Treadwell+George Devane
Miriam Devane+Mixon Draper Dixon
John Abernathy Dixon+Martha Hogan
George Cornelius Dixon+Mary E. Williams
Stewart Joseph Dixon+Alice Elizabeth Frazier
Wilbur Cornelius Dixon+Ollie Kay Godwin
David Keith Dixon

Through Ruth Wheeler the line goes like this:

Ruth Wheeler+Samuel Treadwell
John Treadwell+Abigail Minor
Adoniram Treadwell+Beulah Gregory and so on...

Please let me know if we are closer related than Ruth Wheeler and let me know about any ancestors of Ephraim you may have.

Sincerely,

Subject: Re: Sutliffe

Hi Lucy:

I am so glad that you sent Nathaniel's group sheet! I didn't have any info on John's siblings: Hannah, Judith and Nathaniel.

I have just a couple "differences" from others' documents. Hannah's mother's surname was spelled "Damon." Of course, there often are different surname spellings.

I have John Sutliffe married in New Haven, CT and dying in Plymouth, CT. Otherwise, what I have agrees with your group sheet.

One question: Was Falls Fight the name of the battle in Deerfield? I knew there was a battle in Deerfield but didn't know what it was called?

In case you don't have them, John's 10 children were: Hannah, Mary, Lydia, Abigail, Elizabeth, deborah, Martha, John, Dinah and, my ancestor, Abel.

I will have a lot of new information to add to my Sutliffe lineage, thanks to you. The bit of history from Deerfield was so interesting (cow common? sheep common?).

I have quite a bit of Plympton history that I received from various folks. I probably have as much as I need. Thank you for offering.

The Fancher Family

CATHERINE[1] FANCHER, whose parents and date of birth are unknown, is believed to have been the eldest of the Fanchers with whom this genealogy is concerned. That she was the sister of William[1] Fancher is established by the record that her son, Samuel Elwell, married his "cousin," Hannah Fancher, the daughter of William[1] Fancher, and a like record of the daughter of William that she married her "cousin" Samuel Elwell. Because of the proximity of their homes, nearness of age and inter-family relations, it is the opinion of the compiler that Catherine and William were of the same Fancher family as Hannah and John, alleged by descendants to have been brother and sister, and of Richard and David, and it is assumed for the purposes of this genealogy, that all six were brothers and sisters. Because of the earlier marriage of Catherine, in 1717, it has been presumed that she was older than her brother William, who was married in 1723, and accordingly her record is treated first.

Catherine Fancher was married in Branford, Conn., 14 Aug. 1717 to EBENEZER ELWELL, son of Samuel and Sarah (Wheadon) Elwell, who was born in Branford 28 Oct. 1690 and died in Plymouth, Conn., 24 Dec. 1754. Catherine died in Plymouth 9 Jan. 1743/4, and after her death Mr. Elwell married, secondly, in Waterbury, Conn., 17 July 1744, Hannah Scott of Waterbury.

Ebenezer Elwell and family were among the first settlers of Plymouth, formerly called Northbury, going there about 1732 from Branford. Anne, daughter of Ebenezer and Catherine Elwell, was the second child and first girl born in Plymouth.

Children (surname ELWELL), first six born in Branford:

i. EBENEZER, b. 9 June 1721; d. in Pymouth, 14 Jan. 1767; m. (1) 20 Nov. 1741, RUTH MOSS, dau. of Solomon Moss; m. (2) 24 Sept. 1745, MARY DUNBAR.
ii. SARAH, b. 4 Jan. 1722/3. Not mentioned in father's will of 8 Dec. 1753.
iii. CATHARINE, b. 25 Sept. 1724.
iv. JUDITH, b. 20 Sept. 1726.
v. LYDIA, b. 9 Aug. 1728.
vi. JONATHAN, b. 5 Jan. 1730/1.
vii. ANNE, b. in Plymouth, 5 Dec. 1733.
viii. SAMUEL, b. in Plymouth, 27 April 1736; m. in Plymouth, 1 March 1755, HANNAH FANCHER (his first cousin), dau. of William and Thankful (Thomson) Fancher, born in Branford, 11 April 1736. They moved to Harwinton, Conn., before 1784. Had five children. There was a double

William[1] Fancher, believed to have been a brother of John[1] Fancher, first settler of Poundridge, N. Y., is found in Branford, Conn., as early as 1723 where his marriage took place on 20 Nov. 1723 with Thankful Thomson, daughter of John and Hannah (Wheadon) Thomson, who was born in Branford 7 July 1705. The marriage was performed by Samuel Russell. It is significant that Thankful Thomson and Samuel Elwell, who married Catherine[1] Fancher, were both grandchildren of Thomas Wheadon, one of the first settlers of Branford, which is one of the facts which have led to the assumption that William and Catherine were brother and sister. William and his wife died a day apart, Thankful Fancher passing away on 19 August 1759 and William 20 August 1759.

William Fancher's name appears in various early reports. Branford Town Records of 1694-1788 state: "Entered the earmark of William Fancher which is two nicks or slits crossways of ye right ear on the under side, May ye 18; 1724" referring to his cattle marks. Branford Land Records state that on 1 Feb. 1728/9 (vol. 5, p. 99) "John Whedon of Branford sells to Ebenezer Elwell and William Fancher of Branford yeoman 9 acres in the Gusset. (First land transaction)." The same records, vol. 6, pp. 63, 64, show that William Fancher bought 214 acres of land in Waterbury, Conn., 19 Jan. 1745/6, and his name appears on the list of taxpayers in that town in 1746. His will, recorded in Woodbury Probate Records, vol. 4, p. 112, as drawn 16 Aug. 1759 and probated 4 Dec. 1759, show that William was a farmer and owned a large farm.

William Fancher removed from Branford to Waterbury about 1745 or 1746, being on the list of taxpayers in Waterbury from 1746. When his will was drawn in 1759 he was called of "Northbury" (now Thomaston or Plymouth.) That he lived in Branford as late as 1739 is evidenced by the fact he was received as a member of the Branford Congregational church in July of that year.

As several of the children were under age at the death of their parents, guardians had to be appointed. John, who was of age, became the guardian of his brothers Jehiel, Thomas and Ithiel; William became the guardian of his brother Ichabod and one Zachariah Sanford became the guardian of Lemuel. The guardianship appointments are found in Woodbury Probate Records, vol. 4, pp. 112 to 125,and vol. 5, p. 118.

Children, order uncertain, all but last two born in Branford:

i. Samuel,[2] b. 2 Sept. 1724; d. in Northbury, 8 Jan. 1753.
2. ii. William, b. 20 Oct. 1726.
iii. Deborah, b. 27 Jan. 1728/29; d. in Branford, 5 Dec. 1739.
iv. John, b. 5 June 1731; d. in Northbury, 24 June 1796; m. Athildea Mathews, s.p. Served in the Revolutionary War, Company of Capt. Jotham Curtis, 4 July 1776. Was in Indian Wars, 27 March 1757-16 Nov. 1758.
v. Hannah, b. 11 April 1736; m. 1 March 1755, Samuel Elwell, son of Ebenezer Elwell (her first cousin).
vi. Elizabeth, b. 25 March 1737/8; d. young.

The Great Migration Begins Sketches

WILLIAM WILKES

ORIGIN: Unknown
MIGRATION: 1633
FIRST RESIDENCE: Boston
REMOVES: New Haven 1639
RETURN TRIPS: To England about 1644
CHURCH MEMBERSHIP: Admission to New Haven church by 1639 implied by freemanship [NHCR 1:17].
FREEMAN: Signed New Haven compact of 4 June 1639 [NHCR 1:17].
EDUCATION: Her inventory included six books (listed by title) valued at 14s.
OFFICES: Boston fenceviewer (as "Mr. Wilkes"), 9 February 1634/5 [BTR 1:3].
ESTATE: On 17 October 1636 William Wilkes was one of four men ordered to "range their pail upon each of their grounds straight from the corner of William Wilkes his house" [BTR 1:12].

On 18 June 1638 Boston selectmen allowed "John Spoor late of Clapton, in Somersetshire, to buy Mr. Wilkes's house and ground, and that his brother, James Mattocke, a cooper, shall have liberty to live with him or in some other place in this town" [BTR 1:34].

In the survey of New Haven estates of about 1641 "Will[iam] Wilks" had a household of two and an estate valued at £150, including twelve and a half acres in the first division, two and a half acres in the neck, eight and a half acres of meadow, and thirty-four acres of land in the second division [NHCR 1:91].

In her will, dated 12 January 1645[/6], "Joane Wilkes, being called to go to my husband but not knowing whether he be living or not," bequeathed to "our dear pastor" £10; to "our teacher" £5; to "the Church of Christ in this place" £5; to "my niece Bridget Wilkes" £30; to "my nephew Joseph Balman in London" twenty marks; to "my nephew Nathaniel Warner of Bristoll" twenty marks; to "Susanna Gregson" twenty marks; to "our beloved elder Robert Newman" £5, he to be executor; "and if my house, lands and goods left here should not amount to so much, then my mind is that the abatement shall be upon the three legacies of twenty marks equally ..." [NHPR 1:1:17; NHCR 1:361-62].

The inventory of the estate of "Joane Wilkes," taken 14 January 1647[/8], totalled £89 4s. 5d., including real estate valued at £54 19s.: "12 acres & a half of land in the first division at 10s. per acres," £6 5s.; "2 acres & a half in the neck," 12s. 6d.; "8 acres & a

"the house & lot & garden," £40 [NHPR 1:1:18; NHCR 1:362, 372]. Robert Newman presented to court an account of her estate on 7 October 1651 [NHTR 1:87].

On 2 May 1648 "Mr. Robert Newman, as Mrs. Wilkes her executor, hath sold and passeth over to Robert Bassett the house and home lot of Mrs. Wilkes, with what ground about the house was granted by the town to Mr. Wilkes" [NHCR 1:379]. On 3 July 1649 Robert Newman sued Robert Bassett for default on his payments on this property, but the court refused to act [NHCR 1:469]. On 7 May 1650 "Robert Basset hath sold and now passeth over to Robert Seely the house and lot he bought of Mr. Robert Newman which was Mrs. Wilkes ..." [NHTR 1:25].

On 3 January 1653/4 "[t]he land of Mrs. Wilkes, which was formerly sold to Phillip Leeke by Mr. Robert Newman (whom Mrs. Wilkes entrusted to dispose of her estate), is now passed over and confirmed to the said Phillip Leeke, which is as followeth (as Phillip Leeke by a note certifieth): 12 acres & a half of upland in the first division, lying at the Oysterpoint, betwixt the land of Nicholas Elsy and Mr. Hiccocke's, and 3 acres and a half of meadow at the end of that upland, and 5 acres of meadow at the Black Rock, Richard Hull on the north side and the Black Rock on the other side, one piece of land of about one acre in the oystershell field, the highway on the east & the quarter fence on the north, and 2 acres & half in the neck at the next point below the Island" [NHTR 1:199].

BIRTH: By about 1608 based on estimated date of marriage.

DEATH: On 12 January 1645[/6] Joan Wilkes did not know whether her husband was living. Presumably he died in England at about this time.

MARRIAGE: By 1633 Joan _____. On 9 February 1633/4 "Joan Wilkes the wife of Willyam Wilkes" was admitted to Boston church [BChR 17]; on 8 September 1639 "Jane Wilkes the wife of Willyam Wilkes ... recommended to the Church of New Haven" [BChR 25]; she apparently sailed for England in January 1645/6 in the New Haven ship which was never heard of again.

CHILDREN: None recorded.

COMMENTS: He appears in the inventory of Francis Eaton "for a kilderkin of butter £2" [MD 1:200].

William Wilkes was in court several times regarding difficulties with his servants. On 2 December 1640 it was ordered that "John Davis, servant to Mr. Wilks, should be whipped for his stubborn carriage to his said master," but at the same court Wilkes was charged with "undue correcting him, striking him upon the head with a hammer, he being upon the top of a ladder" [NHCR 1:46-47]. The same two were in court again on 6 October 1641 debating the terms of their contract [NHCR 1:58].

On 6 July 1647 "John Hall informed the court that Mr. Wilks formerly of this town had promised to give his wife ten pounds if she should serve out her time which she did." William Payne deposed that "he heard his Mr. Wilks speak this ... at Boston ... & this he heard him say often here before the servants in the house." "Brigett Wilks upon oath affirmed that she heard her uncle promise to give Goody Hall ten pounds if she served out her time" [NHCR 1:321]. Apparently this plea was not successful, as Hall approached the court again for satisfaction on 2 May 1648, "but it was respited" [NHCR 1:379]. The matter was again before the court on 4 July 1648, when the former servant of William Wilkes and now wife of John Hall was identified as "Jeane Woolen," but the court did not act until it saw the indenture itself [NHCR 1:391-92]. Finally, on 1 August 1648, the court ordered "Mr. Robert newman, executor of the estate of Mr. Wilkes," to pay £10 to John Hall [NHCR 1:397].

JAYNE-Edward Jayne Passes Away at Laceyville-Edward M. Jayne of Laceyville, departed this life, May 6, 1928?, at the age of 75 years. He was born at Mehoopany, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Jayne and spent his early years on Jayne's Bend. His vocation was farming, to which he devoted all of his time. He united with the Methodist Episcopal church at Mehoopany w hen quite young and was active in that organization when his health permitted. He was married to Miss Lilly Johnson, on June 20, 1877, hence, 50 years was spent together by this worthy couple. On June 20, 1927, they celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary at their home on Lacey Street, and a great number of friends came to pay their respects. To this union, two children were born, may, the wife of John Stroud, a mail agent residing at Cleveland, Ohio, and a son, Samuel, who has been with his parents on the farm and has very kindly and tenderly cared for them in their declining years. Mr. and Mrs. Jayne have been wonderfully blessed in caring for three motherless grandchildren, the children being a great comfort to them for many years. Mr. Jayne was very industrious and honorable, having been a good citizen and will be sadfully missed by all and especially in the home. The vacant chair is a reminder of the loneliness that will come to this bereaved home. He was one of the oldest members of Franklin Lodge F & A M and the order had charge of the services at the grave with Dr. Beaumont as master of ceremonies. The funeral was conducted by Rev. Heller, pastor of the M.E. Church at Skinners Eddy, at the home. He spoke comforting words to the bereaved. Submitted by Patty Shumway pshumway@epix.net

MAGEE Laceyville, May 14, 1926-Mrs. Stewart Magee passed away at the Packer hospital about five o'clock Tuesday morning, May 10, aged 22 years. Mrs. Magee and her husband had been living in Luzerne the past year or so, where Mr. Magee was employed in the lumber and contracting business by his uncle, J. J. Vanderworker. A few weeks ago, Mrs. Magee came up to visit relatives on Spring Hill and while there was taken very ill by influenza. Four weeks ago she was removed to the Packer hospital, where it was found that spinal meningitis had also developed. That dreaded disease was finally conquered, when heart trouble set in, causing her demise. The decedent is survived by her husband and an infant son, aged about eight or nine months. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lyon, of Spring Hill and two brothers, William Lyon, who lives with his parents, and Perrin Lyon, of town, also survive. Funeral services were held at the home of the decendent's parents on Thursday afternoon and interment was made in Spring Hill cemetery. Submitted by Patty Shumway pshumway@epix.net

NILES, Wilson B. - Funeral Of Wilson Niles The funeral of Wilson B. Niles, held Friday afternoon at his home at Lawrence Corners, was one of the largest attended home funerals ever held in this vicinity. Friends filled the home and stood on the porch and lawn during the service, which was conducted by the Rev. Orey Crippen, of Tioga. The profusion of beautiful floral offerings bore mute tribute to the esteem in which Mr. Niles was held. Mr. Niles was active in civic affairs of his community and held several important offices. He was school director of Rutland township for 18 years, supervisor for six years, and a director of the Tioga County Grange Mutual Fire Insurnace Company and had held various offices in Tioga Valley Grange, of which he was a member for many years. Besides his widow, Mrs. ANNA SMITH NILES, he is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Clarence Brown. Two granddaughters, Mrs. L. D. Jones and Mrs. Arlene McClure, a grandson, Carl Brown; two greatgrandsons, Larry Roe and Bryce Larue Jones, all of Rutland; one sister, Mrs. Lamont Wood, of Elmira; four brothers, Floyd and Nathan 1595; died at Springfield, 30 April, 1662. He married at Dean Prior, County Devon, 28 December, 1619, Ulalia (or Eulalia) March, who died in New England 29 August, 1690, daughter of Richard and Joan Martyn (?) March (vide infra, March pedigree).

Henry Burt was taxed on land at Harberton in the subsidy of 1624, the bequest of lands and houses made by Henry Burt, the testator of 10 July, 1617, to his son Henry. He emigrated to New England, probably in the winter of 1638/39 or in the spring or summer of 1639, and probably also with his wife and his seven surviving children, two children having died in England.

THE MARTIN (MARTYN) LINE

Arms: Argent, two bars gules.
Crest: An estoile gules.

Martyn, as a surname, is baptismal in origin, and means "the son of Martin" or "Martel." Other forms of the name are Martins and Martinson. Both as a personal designation and as a surname, it is very widely spread in all the countries of Western Europe as well as in America. In France it is Martineau, in Spain it is Martinez, and in Italy it is Martinelli and Martini. In the English Hundred Rolls of 1273, we find listed William fil. Martin, of County Cambridge, and Mariota fil. Martini, of County Hunts.

THOMAS HINE

I. THOMAS HINE

THOMAS HINE had a homelot in Milford by 1646, and died there early in 1698. The wife of Thomas was ELIZABETH ———, who was admitted to the church in Milford in 1669.

The will of Thomas, Sr., dated 9 May 1694, gave to his eldest son Thomas the west end of the lot in the new field and other lands; gave lands to his sons Stephen and William; to his daughters Elizabeth Simkins and Alice Canfield, £10 apiece in movable estate in addition to what they had received; "my sister" Mary Lane if she stay not with my son Samuel but part from him should have £5 given to her; son Samuel, sole Executor, to have my dwelling house and certain lands. The inventory, taken 15 Mar. 1697/8, amounted to over £234.[a]

The sister Mary Lane provided for in the will has not been identified. Some have supposed her to be the Mary who was wife first of Edward Camp and second of John Lane of Milford, but that Mary Lane died in Feb. 1680 [1680/1] according to Milford Church records, and the inventory of her estate was taken 22 Feb. 1680/1, so was not living when Thomas Hine made his will in 1694. Possibly she was an unmarried sister of Elizabeth wife of Thomas Hine, and both Elizabeth and Mary Lane may have been sisters of John Lane of Milford.

The children of "Sister Hine,"—Thomas, John, Elizabeth, Samuel, Stephen, and Alice, were baptized together 21 Nov. 1669.

II. ENSIGN RICHARD BALDWIN

RICHARD² BALDWIN, baptized at Aston Clinton, co. Buckingham, England, 25 Aug. 1622, died at Milford, Conn., 23 July 1665; married at Milford, after 5 Feb. 1642/3, ELIZABETH ALSOP, born in Derbyshire, England, died at Milford, July 1688, daughter of John and Temperance (Gilbert) Alsop. She married second, 1 Nov. 1670, Lieut. William Fowler, who died at Milford in 1683.

He had a good education, wrote a fine hand, and in 1660 was Town Clerk of Milford. He often appeared before the Court as an attorney for others, suggesting that in boyhood he may have clerked or had some training with his uncle Henry Baldwin, who was a lawyer.[e]

He was an original proprietor or free planter of Milford in 1639, when only seventeen, and joined the church 9 May 1641. Elizabeth Alsop joined the church, 5 Feb. 1642/3, and after her name is written, "since married to Richard Baldwin." In 1646 his homestead was on the west side of the Wepawaug River, between those of his stepfather, Captain Astwood, and his brother-in-law, Benjamin Fenn. He was called Sergeant [of the Train Band] as early as 1655, and between 1655 and 1661 was interested in the purchase and settlement of Paugasset [Derby], but remained in Milford, where he kept the ordinary.[e]

He was appointed Ensign of the New Haven Colony Troop, June 1654; and was Deputy for Milford to the New Haven Colony General Court, May 1662, May and Oct. 1663, and Jan. 1664.[f]

His inventory, amounting to £420.15.00 net, was taken 28 Sept. 1665. The names and ages of the children were stated as Nathaniel [error for Sylvanus], 19; Sarah, 17; Temperance, 15; Mary, 12; Theophilus, 8; Zakaryah, 5; and Barnabas, ¾ of a year old. The order of distribution was £150 to the widow;

£70 to "Silvanus, Eldest son"; and £36 to each of the other children at legal age or marriage.[g] This is hard to explain. The eldest daughter, Elizabeth, was already married and perhaps had received her full portion. Not counting her and Sylvanus, there were seven other children, but only six others are named and Martha, then aged 2, was omitted. Also, after deducting the amounts ordered to the widow and Sylvanus, only £200 are left to be distributed, and that is insufficient to divide equally between six children, much less between the seven children who actually existed.

Children of Richard and Elizabeth (Alsop) Baldwin, born at Milford:[h]

i. ELIZABETH^3, bapt. Sept. 1644; m. 18 Nov. 1663, ZACHARIAH^2 BURWELL, b. abt. 1639; removed to Newark, N. J.; both living in 1711.

ii. SYLVANUS, bapt. 20 Nov. 1646; d. at Milford, beginning of June 1727; m. there, 20 Sept. 1671, MILDRED PRUDDEN, bapt. at Milford, 14 May 1653, d. there 6 Jan. 1711/12, dau. of Rev. Peter and Joanna (Boyce) Prudden. He was very prominent, serving as Lieutenant, Deputy, and in other capacities.

iii. SARAH, bapt. 1 Apr. 1649; d. at Derby, Conn., 14 May 1714; m. (recorded at Derby), 14 June 1667, SAMUEL RIGGS, d. at Derby, (before 2 May) 1734.

iv. TEMPERANCE, bapt. 29 June 1651; m. at Milford, 14 June 1673, NATHAN BURWELL, bapt. at Milford, 2 Aug. 1646; went to Newark, N. J., but returned to Milford before 1712.

v. MARY, b. 10 Nov. 1653; bapt. 6 Nov. 1653 (obviously a conflict of records); d. after 1711; m. (1) abt. 1673, ISAAC NICHOLS, b. at Stratford, Conn., 12 Mar. 1654, d. there (before 13 May) 1690; m. (2) DANIEL COMSTOCK, of Lyme, Conn.

+ vi. THEOPHILUS, b. 26 Apr. 1658; d. in 1698.

vii. ZACHARIAH, b. 22 Sept. 1660; d. at Milford, 31 May 1722; m. (1) MARY ATKINSON, b. at New Haven, 14 May 1652; m. (2) abt. 1690-1, ELIZABETH (RATLEFF) SANFORD, widow of Andrew Sanford; she d. between 22 May 1732 and 7 Apr. 1733 (date and probate of will).

viii. MARTHA, b. 1 Apr. 1663; bapt. 5 Apr. 1663; m. at Milford, 8 Feb. 1681/2, SAMUEL NETTLETON, who d. at Milford, about 1713.

ix. BARNABAS, b. in 1665; bapt. 14 Oct. 1666; d. 22 Aug. 1741 ae. 76 (g.s., Woodbridge, Conn.); m. (1) SARAH BUCKINGHAM, b. at Milford, 8 Jan. 1664/5, d. before 1692; m. (2) MARY [probably BOTSFORD, b. 11 Feb. 1671/2]; m. (3) ABIGAIL ———.

III. THEOPHILUS BALDWIN

THEOPHILUS^3 BALDWIN, born at Milford, Conn., 26 Apr. 1658, died there before 22 June 1698, when his estate was appraised; married at Milford, 8 Feb. 1682/3, ELIZABETH^2 CANFIELD, born at Milford, 14 Feb. 1659/60, died there 16 May 1730, aged 69 (gravestone), daughter of Thomas^1 and Phebe (———) Canfield. She married second, 6 Jan. 1704/5, John Merwin, born about 1650, died 15 Jan. 1727/8.

SYLVESTER BALDWIN

MILFORD, CONNECTICUT

The Baldwin Genealogy (1881), by Charles Candee Baldwin, devotes pages 20-75 to the English ancestry of the Milford, Conn., Baldwins. Mr. Herbert F. Seversmith since 1939 has been putting out in instalments his Colonial Families of Long Island, New York and Connecticut, mimeographed, limited to 25 copies. Pages 227-268 of the first volume are devoted to the English Baldwins. In this he incorporated material obtained from England by Capt. Evelyn Briggs Baldwin, which supplements the data in the older genealogy. The ancestry of Sylvester Baldwin in the direct line is as follows.

I. ROBERT BALDWIN, of Wendover, later of Aston Clinton, and finally (1523) of Dundridge, co. Buckingham, England, was born perhaps by 1475, is of mention 1509 and 1518, and died probably not long after 1536; married AGNES, daughter of William DOLTE of Rickmansworth, Herts. While not proved, they were almost certainly parents of Richard and John who founded two branches of the family, both of which are represented in colonial New England.

II. RICHARD BALDWIN, of the Manor of Dundridge, Aston Clinton, born say around 1500, died between 16 Jan. 1552/3 (date of his will) and 21 Feb. 1552/3 (date of probate); married ELLEN, perhaps APUKE, whose will was made 1565-6 (exact date gone).

III. HENRY BALDWIN, of Dundridge, born perhaps about 1530, buried at Aston Clinton, 1 June 1602; his will, 2 Jan. 1599/1600, proved 2 July 1602; married ALICE KINGE, buried 23 Nov. 1626; her will 4 June 1622, proved 14 Dec. 1626. Their eldest son, Richard, succeeded at Dundridge and was buried 14 Oct. 1636; his will named many relatives, but left the Manor of Dundridge to the eldest son of his next brother, Sylvester. The second son was:

IV. SYLVESTER BALDWIN, born perhaps about 1560-65; at one time of Cholesbury, co. Bucks; died between 1622 and 1633, no burial or will found; married 28 Sept. 1590, JOAN WELLS. Their eldest son, Henry, succeeded to the Manor of Dundridge. Their second son was Sylvester, below, who founded one of the American branches of the family.

I. SYLVESTER BALDWIN

SYLVESTER^1 BALDWIN, born around 1595, died on shipboard in June or July 1638; married SARAH ———, who married second, Capt. John Astwood. He died in London, England, in July 1654, and Sarah was buried at Milford, Conn., 13 Nov. 1669.

Sylvester sailed for New England on the ship Martin in 1638 and died on the passage, making his nuncupative will on shipboard 21 June 1638, and it was proved at Boston on 13 July following. It named his wife and six children, Richard, Sarah, Mary, Martha, Ruth, and John.[a]

The widow and children came with the early settlers to New Haven, and she appears in the list of persons and estates (1640?) as Widow Baldwin with a comfortable estate of £300. Since her family is then listed as five persons, which would be herself and four children, it seems likely that the daughters Martha and Ruth, who are found in no record later than their father's will and are not named in their mother's will, died not long after their father. Following Sarah's marriage to Capt. Astwood, the family moved to Milford, Conn. Astwood was a substantial citizen, a Magistrate, and a Commissioner for the United Colonies. He died while on personal business in England.[a]

It was stated years ago that Sarah was a Bryant (Bryan?), but no evidence has ever been put forward to sustain the assertion, nor has a place been found for her among the connections of Alexander Bryan of Milford, whose antecedents have been traced in England. Her will appointed "my beloved brothers" Richard Platt and Thomas Wheeler, to be overseers, but Richard Platt was not her actual brother, and it has yet to be proved that they were brothers-in-law of herself or of either her first or her second husband. They were her brothers in the fellowship of the church, and may have been highly respected friends in whom she felt confidence.[b]

The will of Mrs. Sarah Astwood of Milford, widow, made 9 Nov. 1669, remembered her daughter-in-law [stepdaughter] Hannah [Astwood], wife of Stephen Freeman; grandchild John Baldwin [son of her son John]; grandchild Mary Woodruff [child of her daughter Mary Plumb]; Rev. Roger Newton; grandchild Silvanus Baldwin [child of her son Richard]; grandchild Sarah Burwell, grandchild Mehitabel Fenn, and grandchild Martha Newton [children of her daughter Sarah Fenn, except Mehitabel who was wife of her grandson, Benjamin Fenn]; daughter Elizabeth Baldwin, "widdow" [of her son Richard]; grandchild Matthew Woodruff [husband of her granddaughter Mary Plumb;] son John Baldwin; grandchild Sarah Riggs, grandchild Temperance Baldwin, and grandchild Mary Baldwin [all children of her son Richard]; great-grandchild Sarah Burwell [child of Sarah (Fenn) Burwell]; and daughter Mary Plumb, who was to be executrix.[c]

Children of Sylvester and Sarah (———) Baldwin, born at Aston Clinton, Bucks, England:[d]

Dear Director:

I am working on genealogy related to my husband's family(Weaver, Tresidder, Samsel & Jensen) and am particularly interested in Ogle Co. and Jo Daviess Co., Illinois. Do you have a printed guide as to the materials you have on hand to assist genealogists? Do you have anyone who can do research for someone out of state? I am particularly interested to know whether or not you have newspapers on microfilm for Warren & Galena(Jo Daviess Co.) Polo(Ogle Co.) and Freeport(Stephenson Co.). There are probably obituaries in these newspapers that would be helpful.

Please send me details on charges and availability.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

This award is a prestigious honor very few students can ever hope to attain. In fact, the Academy recognizes fewer than 10% of all American high school students.

Mark Shevin (award winner's name), who attends W. Bloomfield High (name of school), was nominated for this national award by Mr. Pat Watson (sponsor's name), a Teacher (teacher, coach, etc.) at the school.

Mark Shevin (award winner's name), will appear in the United States Achievement Academy Official Yearbook, which is published nationally.

"Recognizing and supporting our youth is more important than ever before in America's history. Certainly, United States Achievement Academy winners should be congratulated and appreciated for their dedication to excellence and achievement," said Dr. George Stevens, Executive Director of the United States Achievement Academy.

The Academy selects USAA winners upon the exclusive recommendation of teachers, coaches, counselors, and other qualified sponsors and upon the Standards of Selection set forth by the Academy. The criteria for selection are a student's academic performance, interest and aptitude, leadership qualities, responsibility, enthusiasm, motivation to learn and improve, citizenship, attitude and cooperative spirit, dependability, and recommendation from a teacher or director.

Mark Shevin (award winner's name) is the Son (son or daughter) of Ann & Scott Shevin (parents) from W. Bloomfield, MI (city and state) The grandparents are Lucy & Jerry Weaver (grandparents' names) of Defiance, OH (city and state) and ________________ (grandparent's names) of ________________ (city and state).

Dear Award Winner:

Several news sources may be interested in publicizing your award. Community newspapers are especially interested in printing news of this type. Large daily newspapers often do not have space for this type of news item. Therefore, you may wish to submit your story to weekly newspapers to increase your chance of having the news printed. Other sources are especially interested in your news, including school newspapers, church bulletins, radio stations, club newsletters, and even your grandparents' hometown newspapers. You may like to make photocopies of your release and submit them to the news sources of your choice.

Mr. & Mrs. Ken Shevin
2016 Mission Drive
Naples, FL. 34109

Dear Ken & Harrilee,

In case, you don't remember me, I am the mother of Scott Shevin's wife Ann. I have been working on genealogy for quite some time and have all of Ann's side of the family entered into my computer. I would like to do the same with the Shevin side for Mark and Ryan. Ann tells me that you have the "family tree" for the Shevins. Is there anyway that I could have a copy of the data? Would gladly reimburse you for the cost of copying and mailing.

Imagine that it is hot and humid there. It is here, too. We are thankful that we finally did get some rain for the lawn and flowers.

Will appreciate any assistance that you can give me.

With kind regards,

Lucy Weaver

Fireman rescues WBHS 'Ragtime' cast

BY DOUG JOHNSON
STAFF WRITER

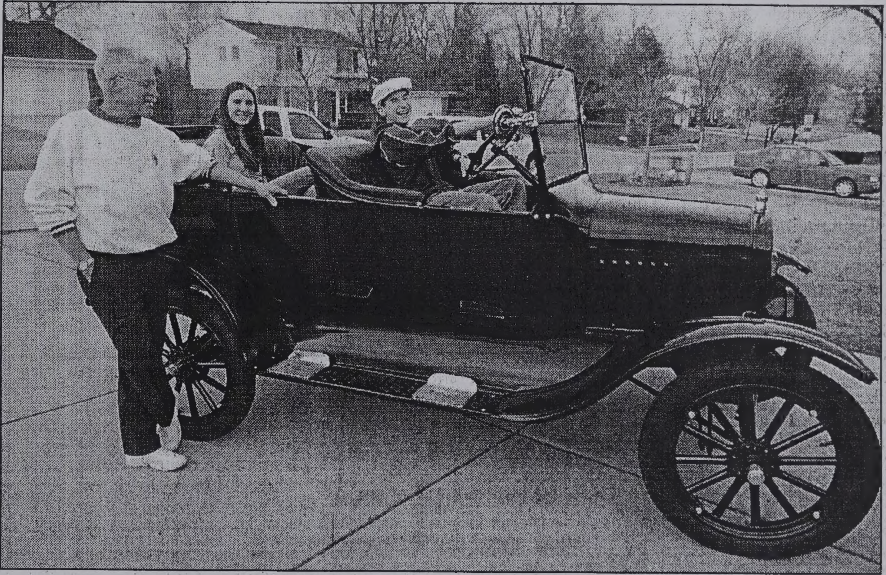
A Farmington Hills fireman has helped rescue the West Bloomfield High School musical - well, sort of.

The school's drama department decided last fall to stage Ragtime, a complex turn-of-the century book, movie, and Broadway musical. A key scene requires a Model T Ford car.

A golf cart with a plywood cutout of a car seemed out of the question.

Enter Bob Rebtoy, longtime Farmington Hills fireman, and currently assistant to the Hills fire chief.

Rebtoy has six vintage Fords, and his 1923 all black Model T Touring Car will be in the play.



DOUG JOHNSON

West Bloomfield High School juniors Elyse Handelman (stage manager) and Jason Miller (projection designer) look over the Model T the school will use in 'Ragtime.' Fireman Robert Rebtoy has donated the use of the valuable vintage Ford.

Mark Johnson, WBHS auditorium technical director, started looking for a car to use as a prop in the musical over the Internet. One place he tried was the Model T Club of America Web site. He contacted about 15 Michigan people, and ended up with a phone call from Rebtoy.

"It was a message out of the blue," Johnson said. "Mr. Rebtoy called and said 'I think I might be able to help you.'" Turns out Johnson and Rebtoy live a few blocks apart in Farmington Hills.

Rebtoy said he is pleased to help the school, and was expected to deliver the car a few days before opening night on Thursday, April 10. The vehicle will be drained of gasoline and will have the battery removed to insure safety indoors.

Rebtoy, who has been a fireman for 35 years, came to the vintage Ford car hobby late in life. He got his first old car in 1995.

"I love showing the cars, and I like the era of the cars. It seemed to me to be a shame to have these cars and not show them as much as possible," he said.

Rebtoy has been in many recent Woodward Dream Cruises, Founders Festival parades, and even takes to cars to senior citizen facilities. "They like the nostalgia," he explained.

Currently Rebtoy owns:

- ■ A 1917 Model T speedster.
- ■ A 1923 Model T Touring Car (convertible), the one that will be in the play.
- ■ A 1925 four-door Model T (hardtop).
- ■ A 1926 Model T Huckster (a delivery type truck with a beautiful hand-made ash wood cab and truck bed).
- ■ A 1928 Model A Roadster with a rumble seat.
- ■ A 1931 Model A all-red fire chief's car. (Rebtoy is also a district chief for the Hills on-call portion of the fire department). This car has recently been at Ford World Headquarters in Dearborn.

Rebtoy also has a Ford tractor, vintage 1949, and he expects one or more of his cars will be at the big Ford Centennial this June in Dearborn.

The cars are definitely roadworthy He's had the four-door out for a recent trip to Plymouth, and expected to take the chief's car 107 miles to Vermontville, Mich., this month.

The car used in the play cost about $300 new but is worth thousands now. Johnson said the theater crew and actors will be very careful with the historic vehicle.

Actors boast first time for 'Ragtime'

BY SUSAN B. TAUBER
STAFF WRITER

Ragtime takes three separate storylines and weaves them in and out of each other, just like the syncopated rhythms of the music made famous in 1899 when Scott Joplin's Maple Leaf Rag was first published.

The musical based on the book by E.L. Doctorow revolves around the turn of the 20th century, when thousands of African-Americans are leaving the South and heading North in search of justice and economic independence. And millions of immigrants from Europe are coming to America to improve their lives and find their new land doesn't have streets paved in gold, and workers in the northern states are beginning to unite in the fight for better wages and improved working conditions.

RAGTIME

The pit orchestra and members of the cast rehearse together for the upcoming production of 'Ragtime' by West Bloomfield High School students. The musical opens Thursday, April 10.

Doctorow portrayed these three sects through three main units. There's Coalhouse Walker Jr., the black piano player and his demands for fair treatment when his Model T is destroyed by a mob of white men; Father - the American Christian who rules his family and his submissive wife; and Tatah, the Jewish immigrant who creates the movie industry by way of inventing a "moving picture" book.

This story was brought to life by musical composer Stephen Flaherty, lyricist Lynn Ahrens and adaptation writer Terrence McNally through the musical that began its Broadway run in 1998.

And now five years later, Ragtime is coming to the West Bloomfield High School stage thanks to the talents of the vocal music and theater students and teachers.

OPENING NIGHT

The show opens at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, April 10, at the high school auditorium at 4925 Orchard Lake Road. Other performances are 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday, April 11 and 12, and at 2 p.m., Saturday, April 11. Tickets are $7 each and are on sale at the door.

"I believe we are the first high school in Oakland County to do a presentation of Ragtime," said Robin Nadler. She and Tim Schoenherr are co-directors. Mark Phillips, band teacher, is conducting the pit orchestra. Mark Johnson is the technical director, Nicole Hurst the vocal director and Valerie Mould the choreographer. Nancy Handelman is in charge of costumes, John Veloove of lighting and Jason Miller of the projections. They are assisted by students Elyse Handelman as stage manager and Jason Potash in charge of sound design.

"This show has so much to it. People in the audience will identify with different parts - there's Harlem with its 'ragtime' music; the New Rochelle white family and the foreigners coming to American through Ellis Island," she explained.

She said the strong ethnic diversity at West Bloomfield High School helped with the decision to present Ragtime.

The show has elements of racism and violence in it.

"We've changed some of the racial language to make it more available to younger students," Nadler said. "The show is moving and tells a powerful story. It has wonderful music that never stops."

Davey Johnson portrays Coalhouse Walker Jr., the black piano player. Edward Drew performs the role of Booker T. Washington.

"The issues brought out in the show make me really proud of who I am," said Davey.

Edward said he plays the voice of reason in the musical.

"There's so much that relates to the people in this community and there are a lot of historical elements in it. I am proud to portray Booker T. Washington," he added.

It's taking a cast of 60 student actors and 30 students in the stage crew and pit orchestra to present Ragtime. Danny Kornfeld from Scotch Elementary and Andrea Rottman from Abbott Middle School were selected from auditions to play the two younger roles.

Charles Walker Jr., age 4, makes his appearance at the end of every show as the young Coalhouse Walker Jr.

Dear Lucy:

It has been so long since we were together, that I am ashamed to say I have forgotten your husband's name. In fact, I think the last time I saw the kids was at the funeral for Barbara. We have been in Naples for almost nine years, and although we remember all of their birthdays with cards, we don't hear from them, either.

Enclosed is a copy of the latest data I have, which probably hasn't been touched in 10-15 years. I'm not sure if Ryan was born when I last updated it.

I believe I started this project around 1977, and stopped around 1980. Since then, in column 10, Philip Agree and Barbara died.

In columns 10-13 I know nothing about those on the first 28 lines, except that some of them married and have children. Scott's cousin Elliott and his wife had three more children, one of whom died; Sandra remarried and has one child; Stewart and Marcie have a daughter; Jennifer married and has a daughter; Jamie married in haste and within weeks divorced, remarried, had a daughter, divorced, remarried and has two more daughters.

I assume that Ann and Scott have some relationship with his cousins and will be able to obtain all of the details - or this may be a project for Herb, who has nothing better to do than play golf.

If you are down our way, let us know. We're always open for family - bed and breakfast, tours of Naples, etc.

Fondly,

Ken
